Casey Daniels
Thursday, Oct. 10 @ 7 PM

We’re excited that the Pepper Martin mystery series author, Casey Daniels, will be at our library for a spine-tingling presentation you won’t want to miss! Casey got her inspiration for writing the series after she applied for a job as a tour guide in a Cleveland cemetery. She has a degree in English and a background in journalism and teaching. She also writes under the pseudonym, Kylie Logan who writes the Button Box Mysteries; the League of Literary Ladies Mysteries (about a library book discussion group!) and soon in October, will be unveiling the Chili Cook-Off Mysteries. She will be available after her presentation for a book signing. Click here to register.

Brimfield Police Chief David Oliver
Monday, Oct. 14 @ 7 PM

Meet “the coolest police chief in existence” as he unveils his new book, No Mopes Allowed. Brimfield Police Chief Oliver has been telling stories for a long time, delighting internet readers from as far away as Hong Kong and every U.S. state. The Brimfield Police Department Facebook page has over 83,000 “likes” and is the second most viewed more eerie local tales. Charles is the author of Paranormal Great Lakes: An Illustrated Encyclopedia, Cleveland Ghosts: Nights of the Working Dead in the Modern Midwest and Paranormal Mississippi River: An Illustrated Encyclopedia. He will be available after his presentation for a book signing. Click here to register.

Amanda Flower
Monday, Oct. 28 @ 7 PM

Amanda Flower, an Agatha-nominated mystery author, started her writing career in elementary school. She read a story she wrote to her sixth grade class and had the class in stitches with her description of being stuck on the top of a Ferris wheel. She knew at that moment she’d found her calling of making people laugh with her words. Her debut mystery, Maid of Murder, was an Agatha Award Nominee for Best First Novel. Amanda is an academic librarian for a college near Cleveland. She also writes mysteries as Isabella Alan. Click here to register.

A Letter from Elizabeth Bell

I feel so fortunate to have the SMFPL in walking distance from my home. I go there when I’m curious, bored, lonely, looking for a new favorite movie or music album, want to learn something new, want to take a computer or cooking class, want to donate blood, want to listen to a concert, etc. I really appreciate the kindness of the staff when I have a question. I like that I can search the library catalog and place holds from the library and/or at home. I was excited when I found out that I could download songs and magazines for free just by having a library card. The interlibrary loan program has also helped me get all of the books on CD that I enjoy. Since I am on a strict budget while paying down my debt, I find that the library has helped me stick to my goal by loaning all of the materials that I would otherwise have had to purchase. Thank you SMFPL for helping me reach all of my personal and financial goals!

How has our Library Impacted your Life?

Everyone has a story. Maybe it goes back to your childhood or perhaps it was a great computer class you took last week. Young and old, we all have memories about how libraries have changed our lives. If you have a story you’d like to share about how the Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library has impacted your life, please click here. Feel free to send a photo of yourself along with your email. Your story may be featured in one of our next FinePRINT issues.

Nothing is more of a reminder of Halloween then when you start to see the presence of candy corn! Candy Corn Punch is super sweet, but it will certainly be a crowd pleaser.

Candy Corn Punch

Ingredients:
- 1 4-serving-size package lemon-flavor gelatin
- 1 cup boiling water
- 2 cups mango nectar
- 3 1/2 cups orange carbonated beverage, chilled
- 1 cup whipping cream
- 2 tbs. honey
- candy corn for garnish (optional)

Instructions:
1. In a large bowl, combine gelatin and the boiling water, stirring until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in the mango nectar. Pour mixture into a tall, clear 2-quart pitcher. Cover and chill about 2 hours or until thickened but not set. Gently pour* carbonated beverage over gelatin layer in pitcher.
2. In a large bowl combine whipping cream and honey. Beat with an electric mixer or large whisk just until stiff peaks form (tips stand straight). Spoon or pipe over carbonated beverage layer in pitcher. If desired, add candy corn. Before serving, stir to mix layers.

Serves 8 (8-oz. servings)

*To ensure that the carbonated beverage stays on top of the gelatin mixture, hold a wooden spoon above the gelatin layer and pour the carbonated beverage over the back of the wooden spoon.

Recipe from Better Homes and Gardens “Fall Baking 2012”

Charlie Brown and his pumpkin have nothing on the great white pumpkin cheese ball. This great appetizer will keep your guests coming back for more.

The Great White Pumpkin Cheese Ball

Ingredients:
- 2 10-oz. blocks extra-sharp white Cheddar cheese, shredded*
- 1 8-oz. package cream cheese, softened
- 2 4-oz. goat cheese logs, softened
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- Braided pretzel, muscadine vine and leaf
- Crackers and assorted vegetables

Instructions
1. Stir together first 4 ingredients. Shape mixture into a ball to resemble a pumpkin. Smooth pumpkin's entire surface with metal spatula or table knife. Make vertical grooves in ball, if desired, using fingertips.
2. Press pretzel into top of cheese ball to resemble a pumpkin stem; place muscadine vine and leaf beside pretzel. Serve with crackers and assorted vegetables.

*Extra-sharp Cheddar cheese may be substituted.

This fall, some very popular authors are coming out with new books! Nicholas Sparks fans have waited for two years for a new release. Last month, The Longest Ride hit the shelves at the library. Sue Grafton revealed another installment of her Kinsey Millhone series with W is for Wasted also in September. This month, look for Sycamore Row by best seller, John Grisham.

This month, Outreach recommends:
Outreach patrons get their very own collection that includes the latest releases. Nancy J., one of our Homebound patrons, absolutely loves Nicholas Sparks (among other great authors). She has recently read and enjoyed the following books:
A Step of Faith by Richard Paul Evans
The Way Home by Katherine Spencer (#4 in Thomas Kinkade’s Angel Island Series)
A Week in Winter by Maeve Binchy
Minecraft

Kids ages 6 to 12 can join Miss Chris in the computer lab for Minecraft Mania, during three Saturday sessions: Oct. 5; Oct. 19; and Nov. 2. These sessions will run from 2:30 to 3:45 PM. When you register, you will be enrolled in all three sessions. Registration begins Sept. 21. To register, call the Children’s Department at (330) 688-3295, ext. 5.

Halloween

Check out Halloween activities for kids coming up this month! On Saturday, Oct. 26, children in K - 3 can attend our Little Shivers program at 1:30 PM. Registration required. Enjoy some slightly scary songs, stories and activities. On Halloween Night, Oct. 31 at 7 PM, kids in grades 4 - 6 can participate in our Dare to Be Scared program. Enjoy scary stories, activities and more. Kids can wear Halloween costumes during both programs. Call 330-688-3295, ext. 5 or visit www.smfpl.org.

Two great teen books recommended by our teen librarian:

Icons is an exciting new YA science fiction novel by Margaret Stohl, one half of the writing team that created the popular fantasy series The Caster Chronicles (Beautiful Creatures). It’s the year 2087, sixteen years after the alien “Lords” arrived in their spaceships and their mysterious Icon weapons devastated multiple cities, killing anyone who came near them and sending all of Earth’s technology back to the pre-electrical age. Seventeen-year old Dol has always been very empathetic and extremely sensitive to emotions in other people. She soon discovers that this is more than just a personality trait, as she and three other teens with unique abilities must figure out their pasts and work together to save the future of humanity.

This Is What Happy Looks Like, by Jennifer E. Smith, is a lighthearted romance for teens that also takes a serious look at the price of fame and keeping secrets. When Graham accidentally sends an email to the wrong person, Ellie, they strike up a friendship through funny and heartfelt emails, sharing their secret thoughts and becoming close friends who will likely never meet—he lives in L.A. and she lives in a small town in Maine. But Graham hasn’t told Ellie everything about himself: He is a famous teen heartthrob actor, and when his film production brings him to Ellie’s town, she doesn’t react to his surprise visit with the joy he had expected. Sure, having the paparazzi follow his every move is a little annoying, but why is Ellie so determined to avoid the media spotlight at all costs?
