Notices

No Computer Classes in January

Due to work in our computer lab, we are unable to offer computer classes in January. We apologize for the inconvenience.

Upcoming Library Closings

The library will be closed all day on Monday, December 24 and Tuesday, December 25 for Christmas. The library will close at 5 p.m. on Monday, December 31 and be closed all day on Tuesday, January 1 for the New Year's holiday.

Coffee With the Editor

The next Coffee With the Editor will be Wednesday, January 2 from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m.

Back By Popular Demand.....Book Bags!!

You can again purchase Zippered Top Pocket Book Bags at the front Circulation Desk at Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library. These are roomy bags with a gusseted bottom and made of 600 denier polyester nylon material. They have 24-inch long handles. The bags are $10, including tax. All proceeds benefit the Stow-Munroe Falls Library Foundation.

Visit the Christmas Tree

Looking for something to get you in the holiday spirit? If so, stop by the library and see our special tree. The beautiful 10-foot tree will be on display in the front magazine area throughout the holiday season. As in past years, the tree features original hand-painted ornaments, each a representation of a classic book, painted by local authors. In addition to these special ornaments, the tree sparkles with hundreds of miniature lights and beautiful ornaments. Thanks to the Friends of Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library for bringing this tree to life each holiday season.

Turning Personal Experience into Art

Scott Lax's Turning Personal Experience into Art will be presented at Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library on Saturday, January 26 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. In this presentation, novelist, feature film producer, playwright, journalist, musician and teacher Scott Lax explores the translation of his own experience as a young man coming of age in 1970 into an award-winning novel, feature film and a play. He encourages his audience to tell their stories in their own ways and shows them how to use real-life experience as inspiration. He also helps them understand the complex worlds of literature, journalism, cinema, television, music and theater.

Lax takes the audience on a personal, yet universal journey. He illustrates ways to use story and myth to let people know that they are not alone in the world, and teaches students how to share their stories with others in a positive way. Lax is currently senior writer for Northern Ohio Live Magazine, for which he writes a monthly column; Associate Director for The Fairmount Center for the Creative and Performing Arts, as well as Director of Fairmount's School of Writing. He is currently writing a novel. There will be time for questions after the presentation. The program is free of charge. Light refreshments will be available. Stop by the Reference Desk or call 330-688-3295 to register. Seating is limited. If you are serious about writing as a career, don't miss this!

This program is sponsored by the Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library and the Friends of Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library.

Library Foundation

The Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library Foundation was incorporated in 1994 as a non-profit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization. The Foundation is dedicated to ensuring a great library system by raising, managing and allocating funds to expand and improve the library.

Why a Foundation? Maintaining Stow and Munroe Falls' top-notch library isn't possible with public funding alone. The Foundation's mission is to stabilize the library in times of reduced public funding and secure the ongoing excellence of the library.

There is no Foundation meeting in December.

Click www.smfpl.org/paypal.htm to learn more about the Foundation or to make a donation.

Book Picks

November's book pick is Double Cross by James Patterson.

From Amazon.com...

Just when Alex thought his life was calming down into a routine of patients and therapy sessions, he finds himself back in the game--this time to catch a criminal mastermind like no other. A spate of elaborate murders in Washington D.C. have the whole East Coast on edge. They are like nothing Alex Cross and his new girlfriend, Detective Brianna Stone, have ever seen. With each murder, the case becomes increasingly complex. There's only one thing Alex knows: the killer adores an audience. As victims are made into gruesome spectacles citywide, inducing a media hysteria, it becomes clear to Alex that the man he's after is a genius of terror--and he's after fame. The killer has the whole city by its strings--and he'll stop at nothing to become the most terrifying star that Washington D.C. has ever seen.

Place a hold on Double Cross by going to the library's online catalog at <http://opac.smfpl.org>.

Website of the Month

The website for this month is for the A Christmas Story House at <http://www.achristmasstoryhouse.com/>

Are you a fan of the holiday film, A Christmas Story? The actual house from the movie is now a museum and is located on W. 11th Street in Cleveland. It is open year-round to tour. This great website gives directions, shows how the house was renovated, gives trivia about the movie, tells about C & Y Chinese restaurant (the actual restaurant in the movie which is still open for business), biographies of the actors and a history of Higbee's department store. You can also order your own major award. There is a link to Red Rider Leg Lamps! This is a great outing for fans of the movie young and old!
