Upcoming Special Events

Feng Shui With Marsha Linguist

Tuesday, June 21 at 7:00 p.m. in the second floor meeting room. Registration is required. Please call the Information Desk at 330-688-3295 to sign up. If you have any questions, please ask for Amy Garrett.

Marsha is currently an interior designer for Ethan Allen furniture in the Akron, Ohio store. She is a member of Allied ASID (American Society of Interior Designers) and faculty at FSII (Feng Shui International Institute). Her practice includes both residential and business clients. As a sought after speaker she is best known in Northeastern Ohio as the "House Whisperer".

Come and listen to the "House Whisperer" as she talks about this Chinese practice of positioning objects, based on the belief in patterns of yin and yang and the flow of chi that have positive and negative effects.

Pride in Your Library

Thursday, June 30 - All Day

The following events will be taking place at Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library on Pride in Your Library Day. Stop by and take part in the festivities! Click here to see photos from last year's Pride in Your Library Day.

- Quest for the Library Dragon - stop in anytime between 10:00 a.m and 4:00 p.m This scavenger hunt is for families and children of all ages (younger ones will need the help of a parent.) Prizes will be awarded. No registration necessary.

Adult Services

Adult Summer Reading Program

Read, Dream, Imagine! is the theme of Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library's Adult Summer Reading Program. Take a book to the beach, listen to a book on tape or CD during a long road trip or sit back and unwind with the latest bestseller. The more books you read this summer, the more chances you will have to win a weekly prize or a grand prize.

From June 13 through August 13 patrons 18 and older can fill out a slip for each book that they read or listen to and drop it in the drawing box at the Questions and Directions Desk near the library's front entrance.

There will be weekly drawings for prizes including gift certificates, tickets, t-shirts and more! A grand prize drawing will be held at the end of the program. Look in the Stow Sentry in the coming weeks for more details on this program, as well as for information on our Children's and Teen Summer Reading Programs!

Evening Book Discussions

The evening book discussion group with Amy Garrett meets the fourth Thursday of the month at 7:00 p.m. September through April. The discussion group will resume in September. Titles for the season will be announced later.

Morning Book Discussions

The morning book discussion group with Chris Caccamo meets the second Friday of the month at 10:00 a.m. Dates and titles for Summer Morning Book Discussions are as follows:

- June 10 - *Confessions of a Shopaholic by Sophie Kinsella
- July 8 - *The Killer Angels by Michael Shaara
- August 12 - *The Bean Trees by Barbara Kingsolver

The morning group will not meet in September and will start the 2005-2006 season in October 2005. As always, sign up is not required. If you have any questions, please call Chris Caccamo at 330-688-3295

Computer Use

Computers for use by adult and teen patrons are in very high demand! This is a reminder that you can reserve a computer ahead of time. Just call the Information Desk at 330-688-3295 to reserve a computer for a one-hour time limit. Computers may be reserved up to one week in advance.

Computer Training

The library offers classes for beginning computer users and more advanced users. They include Introduction to Computers, Introduction to the Internet, and training in Microsoft Word and Microsoft Excel. Classes are offered both day and evening at no charge. The computer class schedule for July will be released Monday, June 27 at 9:00 a.m. The class calendar can be viewed at www.smfpl.org/calendar.htm. Please call 330-688-3295 if you have any questions.

Computer Volunteer

Computer volunteer Tom Labbe is available to help patrons with computer questions during the following hours: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 1:00 - 2:30. He is available at the Adult Information Desk.

Local History

The Local History Room is looking for "a few good people." Volunteers are needed to staff the Room on afternoons or evenings once a week. The Local History Room is a unique resource for the community, providing access to Stow's 200-year history via books, maps, news clippings, photo albums and more. Volunteers will welcome visitors and help them find information, as well as perform tasks to further organize the collection. If you are at least 18 and like to sleuth out the occasional mystery, please call Bridget Hair at 330-688-3295.

Teens

Joust Read

Joust Read is the theme of the Teen Summer Reading Club which runs from Monday, June 13 through Friday, July 29. Students entering grades 7 through 12 can read a book, magazine, graphic novel or comic book and fill out an entry slip. They are then eligible to win weekly prizes including Chapel Hill Mall gift certificates, coupons for Carvel and Handel's ice cream, paperback books, and more! The more you read, the more chances there are to win a weekly prize or the grand prize. The grand prize drawing will be held at the end of the program. Read at least five books this summer and you are invited to attend the Murder Mystery/Ice Cream Social on Friday, August 5.

Teen Tuesdays

Come to special "Teen Tuesdays" programs throughout July. Programs are for ages 11 through 17 and are from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Sign up begins two weeks before each program at the Teen Information Desk or by phone (call 330-688-3295). Refreshments, courtesy of the Friends of the Library, will be available at all Tuesday programs.

- July 5 - Anime Night

Watch the Japanese animated movie InuYasha: Affections Touching Across Time and discuss your favorite anime and manga. Snacks will be served! Parental permission required (movie is PG-13) either by telephone or by signing a form at the Information Desk.

- July 12 - Library Survivor

Think you have what it takes to outlast your friends? We challenge you to find out in our library version of the TV show! Win prizes!

- July 19 - Cartooning Class

For ages 9 to 15. Join cartoonist Duane M. Abel for a fast-paced workshop on how to turn simple shapes, numbers and letters into cartoons, and how to create a comic strip. Mr. Abel will have copies of his self-published comic strip book, Zed: Backstage Pass, available for signing at the program.

Harry Potter and The Half-Blood Prince Program - Monday, July 11 at 7:00 p.m.

Who is the half-blood prince? Is the wizarding world really at war? Discuss theories about Book 6, in stores July 16, as well as all of the Potter books, at this book discussion meeting for teen and adult Potter fans ages 11 and up. Answer HP trivia and win prizes too! Registration is required. Please call the Information Desk at 330-688-3295 to register.

Chess Tournament

The teen Chess Tournament is Saturday, June 4 from 9:00 a.m to 4:00 p.m. for ages five to 14. Bring a bag lunch. Beverages are provided. Register at the Teen Information Desk.

Chess Club

Tuesday, June 28 at 6:30 p.m.

For further information on Teen programs please go to the Teen Services web page at www.smfpl.org/TS.htm.

Children's

Princess Party

Twelve little princesses and their mothers attended a Princess Party recently at Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library. Princesses participated in crafts and games and Princess refreshments were served.

Summer Library Programs

The Magical World of Reading, the summer reading program in the Children's Department begins Monday, June 13. Let reading cast it's magical spell on you. Join us for a great summer including programs, stories, clubs and more. Want to win some great prizes? Here's how:

If you are school age, and a reader, sign up at the library and begin recording the time read in your reading log. Remember to bring the log with you when you come to the library to get your weekly prize. For every five hours you have read, you will receive a lego block to add to our castle. If you read 30 hours, you will be entered in our grand prize drawing at the end of the summer. To win even more prizes, complete a reading shield and turn it in.

If you are not yet school age, and someone reads to you, parents or siblings can keep track of the time they read to you in your reading log. Be sure to bring your reading log with you each time you visit the library to receive your weekly prize. When you have recorded five hours, you will receive a lego to add to our castle. If you log 15 hours, you will be entered in our grand prize drawing at the end of the summer. To win even more prizes, enter our coloring contests.

Summer Story Hours

Summer story hours will run from Monday, June 20 through Thursday, July 28. Programs are available for Lapsits, Toddlers, and Preschoolers. There is also a family story hour. No registration is required. Contact the Children's Department at 330-688-3295 for specific times and more information on story hours.

Art on Display

Corner Gallery

During June the Corner Gallery features shadow boxes created by Sandy Lin, Kumiko Takata, and Yoshie Uenoyama.

Christina Getrost's collection of library postcards and library cards will also be on view in a display case in the Gallery.

Friends of the Library

The Friends, one of the largest organizations in Stow, is a citizen support group for Library services and activities. They sponsor booksales as well as the annual Needlework Show and other activities. Friends meet the third Tuesday of every month (except December and July) at 2:00 p.m. in the upstairs meeting room. Friends membership is currently at 495 members.

If you are interested in joining Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library Friends of the Library you may call the library at 330-688-3295 for further information, or you may go to the Friends page on the library website (www.smfpl.org/friends.htm) for an online application.

Quilt on Display

By the Sea: a Key West Memory, created by Judith Hindall, is a quilt recently displayed over the Circulation Desk. After visiting Key West in 1998, Judy saw a pattern for a Breaking Waves quilt in Quiltmaker magazine. It reminded her of the ocean in Key West, so she started looking for fabric that resembled water. She found this batik border fabric and matched it with greens and teals. Judy pieced and machine quilted it. By the Sea won Best of Show in 1999 at the Spring Needlework Show at Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library, Best Machine Quilt at Lake Farm Park, and Best of Show at Cascade's Basket of Quilts Show.

Spotlight on Travel USA

June's spotlight shines on Travel USA. Stow-Munroe Falls Public Library has many books on travel in the United States, located in the 917.3 to 917.9 section. National Geographic Guide to the National Parks of the United States, Eyewitness

Travel Guides USA, and Fodor's USA are good guides to start with. Eyewitness, for example, contains information on national parks, museums, theaters, beaches, scenic routes, accommodations, and restaurants. The Eyewitness guide covers regions of the country, featuring major sights and cities in each region. Regional and city maps are included. Great American Vacations, by Fodor's, contains recommendations on 25 affordable family trips to best-loved destinations in the United States. This vacation planner offers trip planning advice on such locations as the Lincoln Trail, Mammoth Cave National Park, New Orleans, Boston, Niagara Falls, Colonial Williamsburg, and Shenandoah Valley and the Blue Ridge. Family Fun also produces travel guides for families with children.

Mobil travel guides are available for regions of the country, such as New England, Southeast, Southwest, Northwest, Great Plains, and Middle Atlantic. State and city travel books are located with the regional guides. If you are interested in travel with a nostalgic twist, try Motel America, a State-by-State Tour Guide to Nostalgic Stopovers by Andrew F. and Jenny L. Wood, Along Interstate 75 by Dave Hunter, and James Dean Died Here: The Locations of America's Pop Culture Landmarks by Chris Epting. History buffs may be interested in America's National Historic Trails by Kathleen Ann Cordes and National Landmarks, America's Treasures by S. Allen Chambers, Jr.

Videos and DVDS on USA travel are in the 917.3 to 917.9 section of the non-fiction videos located near the Information Desk. Titles include The Pilot Guide to California, New York, and Amtrak Across America. Try See America at www.seeamerica.org for state and regional travel information, activities and attractions, and travel tips. See America was developed by the Travel Industry Association of America to promote United States tourism. The site contains more than 10,000 links to hotels, airlines, attractions, convention and visitor bureaus, state tourism offices, and more.

BACK TO TOP

Staff Picks

June's staff pick is Seize the Night (A Dark-Hunter Novel) by Sherrilyn Kenyon, recommended by Public Services Assistant Deana Humble. Kenyon's latest Dark-Hunter novel features vampire hunter Tabitha Devereaux's involvement with Dark-Hunter Valerius Magnus According to Deana, Kenyon's books capture your attention and don't let go until the end. They are a blend of romance and action mixed with the paranormal.

BACK TO TOP

Website of the Month

June's website is Roadside America at www.roadsideamerica.com. This site is an online guide to offbeat tourist attractions around the United States. See what's new and read about the sight of the week. Read tourism news from the world of strange travel. You can even use the new hotel finder to locate accommodations near strange sights.
