March of Dimes Starts at 4 Today

Fourteen women and one man are poised to lead the Stow area Mothers March Thursday night starting at 4 o'clock.

County chairman Dorothy Horn, who lives in Stow, said the group hopes to raise more than the $1,400 which Stow contributed to the overall total of $70,000 in Summit county last year.

Miss Horn also said that the Stow police department in Town hall will be the headquarters for the district drive Thursday, and that the volunteer fire and police will help the Marchers in certain districts.

The Stow captains are: Mrs. Richard Carlson of Kent road; Mrs. Ire Adams of Mapledale road; Mrs. David Luke of 4982 Leewood rd; Mrs. Kenneth Deason of 3523 Kent road; Mr. William Bird of 4210 Darrow rd; Mrs. Edith Smith of Orchard dr; Mrs. R. Whittington of 3667 Hudson rd.

DOLLS OUT NUMBER HUMANS TEN TO ONE

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

Stow citizenry seems to have escaped, except for a few scattered cases, the flu germs which are causing such national anxiety. Even the usual number of cold infections that are prevalent at this time of year are running below normal. Harold Winkler, Stow Pharmacy, and Charles Weiss, assistant manager of Stow Standard Drug, report normal business activity.

P. J. Van Brunt, superintendent of schools, reports that a most minor percentage of teachers, are ill or have been ill. Because this has been test schedule time and school activity has not been in its normal pattern, there was no way to check on the absolute absence of students. But the previous absences have been slight. Holy Family Catholic School reports there are absences but these are caused by the seasonal measles and mumps.

Dr. Jeannette Woodring, director of nurses at Summit County Health Department, recommends the importance of being aware of illness when it starts and warns of the complications that might arise from illnesses that have not been taken care of properly in the beginning. Generally, Mrs. Woodring directs, "It is the overall care that an ill person receives on first becoming sick that is important."

"The cardinal rule upon becoming ill, when a fever develops, is to consult your physician. The patient should stay in bed and watch for any unusual signs. The headache, nausea, fever and cold congestion symptoms of flu may be confused with so many other types of illnesses. Drink plenty of fluids and remain in bed."

Everyone Urged to Booster Meeting

Stow Athletic Boosters Club will hold its first meeting at Town Hall in the Police Room next Sunday, Jan. 31 at 2:30.

The new club, temporarily headed by Robert Packard, and having the support of Jack Jackson, Lowell Reed, Sr., Roy Leagren (former professional baseball player), and many Stow businessmen, aims to help build up Stow's athletic program with financial aid as well as morale.

All interested people are invited -- even urged -- to come to Sunday's meeting.

Packard and his associates have made a thorough study of the operation of Boosters Clubs in other communities and are enthusiastic about what one can do for Stow children of all ages.

Stow High's Dixie Dandies at Harmony Show

Before and After: A German Bique doll lies in a pathetic state. When repaired, she will look like the beauty of the 1800's standing beside her and Mrs. Bradley.

"There are about ten times as many dolls as people," estimates Stow's doll expert.

You are welcome to stop in the J. A. Bradley home at 1404 Ritchie Rd., where doll repair is a business as well as an interesting hobby. Broken dolls are made to look like new in a doll repair shop completely stocked with all kinds of parts, wigs, arms, legs, heads, and eyes (blue or brown). The customer may select any part, color or style to be used in the repair of her doll, for any broken part can be repaired or replaced.

The Bradleys turned their doll hobby into a business last spring, after years of collecting all kinds of dolls for their two daughters. Like all little girls they loved them and hated to part with them because they were in need of repair. Mr. Bradley maintains that it is often less expensive to repair a favorite doll than to replace it. By keeping in touch with doll manufacturers he is able to obtain any part needed to restore a doll to its original beauty. Antique dolls, although in need of repair, are always restored to the original appearance to preserve the authenticity. One doll, old, broken and discarded in a barn for 40 years, was brought in for a complete repair job: even the owner couldn't believe his eyes when the job was finished for the doll was restored to its original beauty.

The closest estimate of the number of dolls in the Bradley collection, new and antique, is above 50. The oldest one is (cont. on p. 8)

Wheat! Back Up!
I wrote an editorial last week that could have been misleading. It implied that Stow is eligible for Ohio State aid for construction of gymnasiums or new schools.

My information was incomplete. It seems that Stow may not be eligible. Weekly newspapers being what they are, I am writing this on Sunday and won't have a chance to check the whole subject until after this has gone to press.

I don't enjoy eating my words, even less do I want to print partial or non-truths. Next week I hope to have the whole story of State Aid ready for you.

Meanwhile, anticipating how else we can get a gymnasium for our town. Try to get to Town Hall this Sunday for the new Booster Club meeting. Maybe the start of the answer will be there!

LIBRARY OFFERS INVESTMENT SERVICE

Stow Public Library now has available for reference use a weekly investor's service from Moody's Industries. This up-to-date stock report will show all the stock splits in all the United States companies.

Governing the library is a board of seven citizens appointed by the school board. They are Mrs. Paul Mills, Eugene Mundorff, Mrs. E. J. Mackey, Judson C. Russell, Eldred Savard, Frank E. Brown and Robert L. Buchtel.

A statistical report for 1959 shows Library circulation has increased 13,200 over the 1958 figure, bringing the new high to 62,946 total circulation, of which 22,175 were adult non-fiction, 12,510 were fiction, while juveniles borrowed 29,115 volumes. Records coming and going were 5,564 Long Plays and 501 in the 78 category.

The library collected $1,400.29 in fines for overdue books, $33 for lost books, and $16.61 for reservation fees. At the present time the library is growing by leaps and bounds. Since January, 1959, 51 stereo records have been added to the wide collection which contains 1,143 Long Play records, 218 78's, and 101 children's records waiting to be taken home and enjoyed by the young.

Terry Talks of High

by Terry McLinty

Rumor has it that she slipped on the ice just so she wouldn't have to grade the exams, but she says they will be graded nevertheless. She has been practicing writing numbers with her left hand ever since.

Saturday morning, January 23, Mrs. Rank's junior English classes, the senior prom cast and anyone else who wanted to go boarded a school bus and headed for Kent State University. They were two plays dramatized by University students. The first was a three act play, the second was a musical comedy. In the two hours between plays our students ate lunch and roamed the campus.

Friday the journalism class sponsored an after game dance, it was the first Friday home game. Tomorrow, January 29, the National Honor Society is sponsoring the dance. I'll see all of you there.

Mrs. Floyd Weymouth, 3530 Dietrich dr.; Mrs. James Parker, 2747 Progress Park; Mrs. Robert Boater, 1667 Hibbard ave.; Mrs. Walter Braucher, 3716 Kaufman dr.; Mrs. Warren Gleghorn, 4111 Pardee dr.; Mrs. Joseph Gaylord, 2427 Sauna dr.; Mrs. Robert Leach, 2511 Wilson rd.; and Mrs. C. P. Burns, Marboro dr.

The New March of Dimes, besides continuing its campaign against Polio, has spread into the fields of childhood birth defects and arthritis and virus diseases this year.

First Christian Church of Stow joins in National Observance of Youth Week with an all-youth worship service Sunday morning at 10:45. Linda Dailey, Robert Cueni, and Donald Gray, senior members of Christian Youth Fellowship, will each speak on phases of the general theme, “Love Him, Serve Him.” Also participating actively in the service will be CYF representatives Linda Reed and James Cowles, while from the Chi Rho junior high group, Ruth Ann Merrell, Maryann Baer, Kip Kiski and Charles Hoskinson will have important parts.

Music for the service will be provided by the Youth Choir with Parke W. Cooley directing and Mrs. Edward Davis at the organ.

Reverend Theodore Cord, minister, emphasizes the fact that this service is not just for young people, but for all adults as well. “In a day when American youth receives so much criticism, it is well to encourage the larger percentage of teenagers, who are rendering a real contribution to the church.”

Chapter 6, Woman’s Auxiliary of John’s Episcopal Church, is having a Smorgasbord luncheon and card party in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 10 at 12:30. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Helen Hoskins, OV 8-3759 or Kay Peterson, OV 8-4780.

The meeting last Thursday of Circles of Holy Family Parish turned out to be a surprise party in honor of Mrs. William Keller, 341 Adeline Dr., who expects her tenth child early in February.

Holy Name Society of Holy Family met last night in the school gym. The program was a movie entitled, “Do You Have Trouble Saying What You Mean?” The business meeting was conducted by Murray Powers, president.

Wed. Feb. 10th will be the next meeting of the Altar and Rosary Society at 8:00 p.m. in the school hall. Mrs. William Keller, program chairman, has announced that in conjunction with Catholic Press month, Mrs. W. P. Miller, a member of the Stow Public Library Board, will be the guest speaker.

The Credit Union of Holy Family Parish in Stow, held their 5th annual election of officers at a dinner meeting at the Rainbow Restaurant in Kent, Ohio Thursday Jan. 21. Twenty-four of the four hundred members attended the affair. Mr. Thomas Dailey was the chairman for the dinner, assisted by Mr. Frank Freis and Mr. Paul Finner.

Newly-elected officers taking over for 1960 are as follows: Mr. Edward Schmidt, president; Mr. Paul Finner, vice president; Mr. Joseph Wolno, sec. treas.; Mr. Thomas Dailey, ass't. treas.;
Red hearts and silver darts will provide a rich warm decor for the ballroom at the University Club Feb. 6, at Holy Family's Hearts and Darts Ball. Angelic little cupids will perch atop individual arrangements used to brighten all the tables. Gentlemen will all receive the traditional boutonnieres.

Mrs. William Koehler heads the decorating committee assisted by Mrs. Elmer Walter, Mrs. Howard Schulz and Mrs. Peter Brezovicky. Invitations are the responsibility of Mrs. Albert Colpo assisted by Mrs. C. J. Crook and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mrs. Robert Freeman will direct publicity with Mr. Gene Donatelli assisting.

A pre-dance party is being held by Mr. and Mrs. James Nestor and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Near, who will incorporate their party at the Nestor residence, 3064 N. Oakhill Rd. Other hosts of before-the-dance gatherings include Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barnes of Adeline Dr., and Mr, and Mrs. David Walker, of Liberty Rd.

The annual Ball is jointly sponsored by the Altar and Rosary and Holy Name Societies of the parish with Mrs. Robert Burns and Mr. C. J. Crook as chairman, and is open to all parishioners and their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mate, 1612 Ritchie Rd., are home from three weeks in Florida. Mrs. Mate reports beautiful weather, daily golf, and marvelous food. "I look out the window and see the snow here, and just pretend it's nice white sand," she said. But it doesn't feel quite the same on bare feet!

A/3 Curtis C. Moore is home on a two-week leave from Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. After his leave, he will join the Medical Administration at Guenter, Ala. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ormond K. Moore, 1472 Hilbird Dr.

Mrs. Ruthe Holden was pleasantly surprised on Sunday, January 17th, as her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roe of Kent, entertained at a family dinner in honor of her birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. James Hartley (Barbara Holden) and son Chris, Mr. and Mrs. Ross R. Holden, and Ronnie Holden and the Roe's two small daughters Tammiie, and Terri.

Tomorrow, Jan. 29, marks a birthday for Claire Olson, head of our Post Office, his family, including his wife and two sons, plan taking him out to dinner to celebrate. Olson just moved into their new Hawthorne Avenue home last week. (Hallie, you tell Claire's age? Aw, he won't care -- [will be 42])

Danniiel Peterson had to paint his entry for the Matchbox Derby held by Indian Guides while in a bed. Danniiel's been down with the flu or virus, but didn't want his car left out of the running.

MONROE FALLS PIPELINE

Stanley Meersurnished, 95 Monroe Falls Avenue, was injured at work, at the McNeil Engineering Company of Akron, January 11, and received hospital treatment, and then sent home to convalesce the remainder of the week.

Lawrence Forshay, 286 Hunter Street, is out and around again, after spending some three weeks indoors, due to illness. Good to see you out again, Swede.

Many happy returns of the day to both Richard Miller, Village Road West, and to his father, John Miller, proprietor of Dusty Miller's Tavern, South Main Street, who celebrated their birthdays on January 18 and 13, respectively.

The week-end of January 16, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brick, Mr. Brick's brother; Albert, and their nephew Dick Miller, went to Berlin, Pennsylvania, to visit Mrs. Hiriam Brick, who has been in ill health for quite sometime.

A belated birthday greeting to Timmy Miller, son of the David Millers', Monroe Falls Avenue, who celebrated his fourteenth birthday January 18. Timmy is an eighth grade student at Stow Junior High.

Dotty Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Powell, Highland Avenue, underwent surgery at Akron City Hospital recently. Dotty is a patient in Room 203 Surgery.

Mrs. Emaneuelng Sriggel, Monroe Falls Avenue, was rushed to St. Thomas Hospital, January 16, by ambulance, due to a heart condition. Reports are that she is improving some each day. She is in Room 409, Medical.

Mrs. George Mayer, is up and about once again after being very ill at her home, on South River Road. A very speedy recovery to you, Kathryn.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lauer, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dial, Mrs. Gladyss Morton, and Burt Zimmerman, attended a surprise anniversary celebration, given honoring Mr. and Mrs. Neil Nelson, at the lodge at Fred Fuller Park, Saturday, January 16. The Nelsons were observing their forty-sixth anniversary. Over one hundred attended the affair.

Cub Scout Pack 317 met January 26, at Riverview School. James Gagliardo is Cubmaster and Richard Lockhart Pack Committee Chairman.

NEW MARCH OF DAMES PORK LIGHT DRIVE

CAPTAIN WILLIAM STOW
This William Stow was the 6th generation from the John Stow who lived in Biddendon, Kent county, England. Our line from him goes like this: 2nd generation, John. (I won't bother you with the dates.) John came to New England with his wife and six children in the ship Elizabeth. It landed May 17, 1634.

3rd generation - Thomas Stow lived in Middletown. There is much in the Colonial records regarding these Stows.

4th generation - Joseph. 5th generation - Zebulon. He was a sea captain.

6th generation - Zeb's son, William, was the emigrant to Stow Township. He also was a sailor and sea captain. I have told something of him in my stories of his wife, Peggy Gaylord, and of his son, Albert. I think he never farmed his big farm at Munroe Falls.

He was a skilled ship carpenter and worked at his trade in Old Portage and the village of Cleveland. He and some of his Gaylord relations walked each week from their homes in Munroe Falls to their work in Cleveland.

Captain Stow commanded his own ship in the battle on Lake Erie when Perry won his famous victory over the English.

I have said that Peggy was slender and lively. From the little photograph his great-great-grandson, Wilford Bixler, has of him and Peggy, William was quite short and heavy set.

We know that he was quiet and sober. Very strict in the bringing up of his big family. He was well thought of in Cleveland.

His wife's sister, Betsy Gaylord, (one of the twins) married Leonard Case, Sr., of Cleveland. The marriage was in William Stow's log cabin at Munroe Falls. Mr. Case and his wife were the parents of Leonard Case, Jr., the wealthy philanthropist to whom Cleveland owes many gifts. We know comparatively little of the home life of these ancestors of ours.

My mother, Ellen Stow, told me he only this one story of him. When she was a little girl she was sitting at the table with her grandparents. She had her knife in one hand, her fork in the other. Involuntarily, she threw up her hands to brush the hair from her face.

Her grandfather sternly said, “Ellen, don’t let me ever see you do that again!”

My grandfather, Albert Stow, told me that his father gave him this pungent advice: "Albert, keep about while you are about!"

The boy certainly tried hard. He was nearly 85 years old when he went. He was chopping wood on the pile a few days before he died.

Rhinestone tiaras were the crowns and garnitures the corsages for two queens, Mrs. Rita Kontra and Mrs. Mildred White at the annual recognition ceremony of Stow, Tom o’ Fun T.O.P.S. Club, January 13.

Mrs. Dorothy Deardt received a corsage for placing as runner-up in the contest for the greatest weight loss during 1959. Tom o’ Fun holds open membership for anyone wishing to lose weight. Guests are welcome at the meetings, held every Friday evening at 7:30. Mrs. H. R. VanOoss, 3055 Lake Rd., will hostess the next meeting and may be called for further information at OV 8-3560.

The Woodland Garden Club has been organized to meet the needs of the many new women in our community who are interested in gardening. Anyone living in Maplewood Park wishing to join may call Mrs. Fred Cox at OV 8-5661. Membership is limited to twenty-five members.

Installation of officers was held at the December meeting with Mrs. Thorald Alexander and Mrs. James Ball from the Maplewood Garden Club in attendance.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Charles Liebegott, pres.; Mrs. Wm. Gron, vice president; Mrs. John Stinig, secretary; and Mrs. Michael Crist, treasurer.

Charring Cross Garden Club held its installation of officers ceremony on January 26 at the home of Mrs. A. B. Ely, 3581 Charring Cross Drive.

Dr. were incoming officers are Mrs. R. E. Kuehner, president; Mrs. N. S. Beal, vice president; Mrs. K. H. Bailey; secretary; and Mrs. A. B. Ely, treasurer.

Mrs. Dhu, from Clemenson Florists, spoke on corsage making.

John Micle, 3652 Elm Rd., assistant scout master of Boy Scout Troop #177 was awarded this winter's Key by the district Commissioner. This special award is presented to outstanding scout leaders who have completed more than three years of training.

Stow Players Inc. will meet in the Players’ Room of Town Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 2, at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Donald Powhll will present a one-act play, If Men Played Cards as Women Do. Cast includes Clarance Forest, Leo Landoll, Robert Vogel and Robert McIntyre.

Tomorrow night 30 members of Stow Players will attend a theater party at Weatherwane Playhouse to see a fellow member, Joe Pfeiffer, play the role of Conrad in A Visit to a Small Planet.

Mr. E. R. Stratton, from the “House of Baskets” in New Philadelphia, Ohio, will talk about different types of wicker at a meeting of the Maplewood Park Garden Club tonight at 8:00 p.m. The members will meet in the model home, 2258 Lynwood Dr., where Mrs. William Dishongh will be hostess. Mrs. Dean Hagenmiller, Mrs. Richard Paunce and Mrs. Rolo Lyberger will serve as co-hostesses.

Monthly meeting of the British Commonwealth Club will be held at the Akron YWCA at 8:00 p.m., Friday, Feb. 5. An Irish program is planned. For transportation, call Kay Peterson, OV 8-4760.

Last Friday night neighboring Tallmadge scored a 71-50 victory over Stow's Bulldogs. Tallmadge ran up a decisive lead in the first half due to the sharp-shooting of Carver and Williamson.

The second half proved to be an even struggle but the damage had been done. This writer would like to point out that previous remarks about the poor gymnasium facilities were not meant to be slights for the team.

However I do wish to emphasize the fact that future plans for Stow should include a new gym.

Also I was happy to note that the gym lighting had been repaired as of last week.

I am aware that such projects as new gymnasiaums are not consummated over night. However, as long as we are all in accord on what should and must be done in the future I think our problems are much smaller.

The state of the Bulldog basketball team exists as it is because of certain physical handicaps—namely lack of height, experience, and ability. These are due partly to a lack of proper training facilities but not entirely.

On the brighter side it is not inconceivable to predict that next year Coach Boomhauer will be able to field a well seasoned group that will be capable of winning many more games than at present.

Time is important in the production of a fine student manually and physically. Our time will come.

Holy Family's basketball team marked up another victory Saturday when they beat St. Peter's 37-17. Tom Schmitt scored 14 points; Bob Martin 11; Lenny Nalenecz, 8; Bill Gaal, 4; Ray Habyan, 2; and Bill McMillan, 2.

A newly formed group of eighth grade cheerleaders, led by Elizabeth Bender, may have helped the victory along. On the cheering roster are Elizabeth Bedell, Ann Buckley, Elizabeth Cheslock, Jackie Lucas, Vickie Botz, Janet Wilmot and Sandra Swift.

Next Saturday's game is against St. Hedwig's of Akron, and will be at St. Vincent's Field House.

NEW POST FOR STOWITE

-Benzel S. Atzenhofer, 3511 Lakeview Blvd., has been appointed office manager of the Akron/Cleveland terminal garage installation of Motor Cargo, Inc., was announced today by the Akron trucking firm's president, Owen O. Orr.

In his new post Atzenhofer will have charge of all records, inventory, cost studies, and other matters pertinent to the company's garages in six cities, as well as the big garage at the company's terminal on U.S. Route 21, near West Richfield.
WHAT'S BEEN GOING ON HERE?

Here's What Goes into a Prescription....

You give the pharmacist a piece of paper. A little while later, he hands you a package of medication.

What you get for your money is not just a bottle of tablets or capsules or liquid. It's a great deal more. As follows:

Research

Thousands of non-hours and millions of dollars have been expended by the manufacturer to find the drug that will do exactly the job the doctor wants done. For every 20 drugs tested at great expense, only one usually turns out right. Only after research...in the test tube, on animals, on human patients...is the product ready to go.

Production

To mass-produce today's wonder drugs...so that all who need them may have them...requires fantastically complex equipment.

Availability

The finest drug in the world is useless if it's not available to the person who needs it when he needs it. To deliver the newest drugs to every city and hamlet - overnight - the drug industry maintains a highly organized distribution network.

Dispensing

To make sure he learns how to dispense your medication safely and accurately, the law requires your pharmacist to undergo 5 years or more of rigorous, costly education and training.

To do his job right, he must then invest thousands of dollars in stock at least 3,000 different drugs, many of them rarely called for.

Those are some of the things you get when you pay for a prescription.

an original French BeBe Juneau, a boy doll, which was purchased in Cleveland by a collector, and is worth $150 to $200 as it dates back to 1870. You really have to see this collection to appreciate its true beauty.

Bradley's collection also boasts an original German Mississy doll dating back to the period between 1800 and 1900, and several genuine Bye-Lo dolls with the German bisque head. These baby dolls were designed and created by Grace Story Putman in the early '20's. She haunted the nurseries of some of the country's leading hospitals trying to reproduce an exact copy of a tiny newborn infant face to be joined with the stuffed, curled up legs of the Bye-Lo doll.

Another most unusual doll in the Bradley's collection is an original German Prince Otto doll, having a bisque head and a baby-type composition body. It's ten inches tall. Prince Otto, of course, was the son of the Emperor Kaiser Wilhelm. The child's deformity, a crippled hand and shoulder, was made into the doll. After the emperor discovered this, he forbade the continued manufacture of the doll, but a few had already been sold. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley feel fortunate to have one in their collection.

It was interesting to learn also that the dolls made before 1880 had closed mouths after that date they began to smile and show teeth. The eye tray was quite fascinating, all types and styles of doll eyes. Some were called "paper-weight eyes" because they are the stationary type that resemble a paper weight. (Some even have long curly lashes.)

The 1890 Christmas dolls are one month old this month and already Mr. Bradley has had many visit his shop for a repair job. Of course the busiest doll repair season is two months before Christmas.

Mr. Bradley fills in all his spare moments with his doll repair hobby when not at Good-year Tires and Rubber Co. working as a supervisor in engineering. This is a hobby Mr. and Mrs. Bradley share together and enjoy in the comforts of their home. They have two daughters and two sons, all are grown and married except the youngest son who is a junior at Stow High. Maybe you would be interested in joining a doll club, some are being formed now through the Bradley's Doll Repair.

A surprise housewarming party was "sprung" on the W. P. McCann, Jan. 23, by some close friends. We wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. McCann (Thelma) who was to undergo major surgery at Akron City Hospital today.

Elileen Slattery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Slattery, 3646 Adaline Dr., is recovering from an attack of mononucleosis, a slow resident who recently served on the Petit Jury of Summit County Common Pleas Court for a three week period are: James Bisella, 3784 Elm Rd., Jerome Haas, 3546 Adaline Dr., and Mrs. H. S. Dougherty, 3421 Adaline Dr., Mrs. Joseph Hornick, 3492 Adaline Dr., recently served on the Grand Jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Donatelli and family are moving from 3646 Adaline Dr. to a newly built home at 3121 Englewood Dr. on Feb. 12.

The Leo Muckosrrom family has its hands full...three children went en masse to Children's Hospital last week for T & A's (tonsils and adenoids). Sandy, 16 year old daughter, escaped only because she'd had here out years ago, but Thereasa, 5, Mark, 4, and Gary, 10, went through their ordeal together. Three birthdays in the family during the following ten days didn't hurt too much, as ice cream is famous for de-tonsilled threats.

MASQUERS FARE OPENS AT BREATNACH

Pails Masquers open their new two-act comedy, WAKE UP, DARLING, by Alex Godfrey at Breatnach Country Club tomorrow, Jan. 26 at 8:30 p.m. The sophisticated farce is directed by long time Masquer, Bob Swan in his first directorial assignment, assisted by Han Petroski.
