STOW CLEAN-UP WEEK

STOW CLEAN-UP WEEK WILL BE MAY 16

Mayor Charles H. Monteith has issued an announcement that a proposed date, that of the week of May 16, has been designated as STOW CLEAN-UP WEEK.

All Stowites are urged to "clean-up" their residences and yards. This includes commercial sites.

All rubbish and thrown-away objects, acquired during the course of spring house cleaning, should be prepared for removal by the Village. This accumulation will be disposed of by arranged collections.

This Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. Mayor Monteith has called a special meeting of all those organizations, to whom he has sent communications regarding this 'clean-up'. At this meeting plans will be mapped for the week's collections.

Next week's issue of STOW PRESS will announce collection points and time periods.

Charles Cali and his Band will play for the Grange square dance, Saturday, May 7, 9-12 p.m. at Darrow Street Grange Hall, Rt. 91, Darrowville. Plenty of free parking space, refreshments; and $1.00 per person.

Way Back When

Gregory Bowers (1738-1833)

The pioneers in Stow Township, with a few exceptions, came here from Connecticut with only one exception they were of British descent. Gregory Powers was an Italian, born in Naples.

General niece in his tiny history of Summit Co. tells most of what he knew of him.

Mr. Bowers has added some details about his family. Nothing is known of his early life. We don't know when he came to New England. That he was a sailor and had accumulated some property is certain.

In 1775 when war with the parent country broke out Captain Powers was commissioned as a Privateer to prey on British vessels and actively engaged during the war. When William Weetmore in 1804 came to Stow Township to act as agent for Joshua Stow in the sale of his land Mr. Powers was his partner. His wife and seven children came with him. One more child was born after they came to Stow. The boy was born in 1807. Mr. Powers was then 65 years old. Mrs. Powers died at that time.

Her burial was the first adult one in Darrowville Cemetery and in Stow Township (1st burial in Stow Cemetery was in 1809).

Gregory lived 31 years, all in Stow, after that. His log house was near to the brook, named for him in Darrowville. He is said to have owned near to 1,000 acres.

Many stories are told of this excitable, eccentric old man. The land was heavily wooded. A problem of those early farmers was to get rid of the grand old hardwood trees quickly. This story from Mr. Biece History gives you an insight into the character of this lively man. A young neighbor of his, Mr. Singletary, was cutting down trees. A quick way to fell them was to cut several of them in a row, partly off, and to cut one clear off and to crash it into the others.

Singletary threw as many of the trees over onto Powers’ land and as he could. Some time later one of the young fellows married one of Powers’ daughters. At the wedding Gregory swore and said “Well...you played a dirty trick on me...now I am getting even.”

It is said that Mr. Powers planted many of the lovely maples that have lined Darrow St. for so many years. As the log house, that he built, grew old and rottten, the old man left it and spent the last of his life in the home of his friend and neighbor, Josiah Stow. Josiah was just a boy when he came with him in Mr. Weetmore’s party.

Here is one more story about Mr. Powers. He comes near the end of his life. He had Edwin Weetmore make his will. He specified exactly where he wanted to be buried. When Mr. Weetmore suggested that he should be buried beside his wife the old man swore and said, “We never got along in life how can we after we are dead?”

He had another freakish idea about his own burial. He wanted no part of his body to be put under ground. So he built the odd-looking stone vault that still stands near the front in Darrowville Cemetery.

Someone long ago told me that he said, “If the Devil comes in at one end I will go out at the other.”

Only one of his eight children lived long in Stow. Charles Powers built the house where Edmund Gleason now lives at 4168 Barrow.
HIGH WAYS

by Terry Moore

May 8th at 8:00 p.m. in Stow High's Auditorium, it's the 1960 Festival of Tones. Tonight only, the Stow Band Parents are sponsoring the second annual concert of all of Director J. Rex Mitchell's bands.

The All-City Elementary Band will play several familiar tunes and marches. The Jr. High band will present pieces by Bach, Handel, and contemporary composers. They're also playing an excellent arrangement of "Sentimental Journey" that I'm sure one would want to miss! A transcription of a Bach prelude, Pillmore, and Sousa are a few of the selections the diligent workers in the Sr. High Band will please everyone with. Senior trumpeter, Jim Savory, will play "Have Horn, Will Travel" by Robert Logan, with band accompaniment. Student director, Don Gray, is going to lead the band in LeRoy Anderson's "Blue Tango."

The Jr. Y-Teen dance, Seventh Heaven, last Saturday night, was a big hit! Our Stow High Auditorium was disguised beautifully under the careful direction of the Jr. Y-Teens and Karen Kuhlke, chairman of the decorating committee. Suspended on wires across the ceiling were unique stars. They were some sort of balls with straw sticking out all over, and they were painted silver. There were big blue stars with silver glitter over each of the doorways where the attendants entered to make an aisle for Queen Barb Popp and King Deni Kuhle. Blue lights shone down and two angels on the stage curtains behind their thrones looked on, while the royalty was crowned.

The Senior Class has selected Juniors Judy Thomas and Don Shuster to lead the processional on Recognition Day and again for Commencement. Terry Moore and Lynn Jackson were selected to lead the processional for the seniors at Baccalaureate.

Last Friday night the Sr. Y-Teens were more "all wet" than usual. They had a swim party at the Falls Y. .

Next Tuesday, May 10th is Class Day. This is a big special day for Seniors. We have an assembly and hear the will and prophecy of the "Mighty" seniors. It is something we're looking forward to.

Did you know that last weekend the Summit County PTA sponsored a Summit County Art Show at Polasky's? Dolores Burdick received a black, red and white ribbon for a portrait she did. Terry McIntyre won a red ribbon. Dixie Henning, Sonny Jr. Y-Teens witnessed the crowning of their Queen and King at the dance in Stow High Auditorium. (r-l) Barbara Sauer, Linda Hunt, Queen Barbara Zuppe, King Dennis Kuhle, Donna Finney, Sharon Pinbott and Dick Sellars.)

Well, and Frank Linton all received honorable mentions. You'd like to hear that out of 700 pieces of arts and craft, Albert Youskin's picture won three first prizes. Albert is a first grader at Highland and did a splendid picture in crayon. Only three people in the whole contest received three first prizes and we are very proud one of them is from Stow.

LENA OSMAN; STOW'S PIE LADY

This success story grew out of black, lonely days that only a wife and mother of four growing children, suddenly made a widow can experience. How did a business venture like Osman Pies get started? It all stemmed from a determination Mrs. Osman made herself develop following the death of her husband back in 1941. She had never been out in the working world. Wasn't easy as she recalls, to force herself to meet the challenge of a new life for herself and her children.

Lena, a Stow resident for 33 years, first went to work at O'Neils in the bakery dept., where tea room baked goods were made. After 4/5 years of gaining experience, she went to the Schonbrud where she became head cook, making all the desserts for an additional 4 years of know-how. Then came a chance to bake at Bell's Diner across from General Motors. It was at this Diner that Lena purchased her first oven, taking special orders and developing an "Osman Pie" following. Eleven months later she began her own business, behind the barber shop at first and finally to the present location 3306 Kent Rd.

This plucky business lady, while holding on to a strong faith and praying for continued good health, carrying on in this business venture, raised her three sons and a daughter, now boasts 10 grandchildren. Lena has a son Edward Harry, Captain in Air Force, stationed in Texas, this World War II pilot, making the Air Force wing, is married and has a son and a daughter. Her daughter Mildred is Mrs. Paul Montelth, mother of four youngsters, living in Munroe Falls. Howard Osman is Captain at the Stow Fire Dept., married and has two children. It is her son Dick's wife Ethel who has been a business partner for the past ten years. Dick is associated with Standard Mold, proud of two teen-age daughters.

Mrs. Osman enjoys leisure time and realizes a life-long ambition as she plays her newly purchased electric card organ.

The system is the secret of a thriving business and Lena has a unique system of smooth operation. Each pie is definitely "hand-made" to every detail. She wouldn't think this busy lady, who is past retirement age, could find time for outside activities but she was financial secretary for the Stow Community Church for 25 years, now is active in the Church Guild, member of the Stow-Silver Lake Garden Club and Professional Women's Club and Set-O-Ettes to help her to remain figure-conscious.

Lena has maintained the family home, 3541 N. Sanford where the family grew to adulthood and had a secret ambition recently fulfilled. Ever since as a child she enjoyed playing the piano. Lena has wished to learn to play an organ. Recently, she purchased a Hammond Electric Cord organ and after several lessons has enjoyed hours of relaxation sitting at the organ playing to her hearts content. That is, when she isn't working a complete vegetable garden, canning and freezing the harvest each year.

Mrs. James K. Robinson, nee Cheryl Ann Spear.

This successful baking business is her life - a new life she made for herself with fortitude and determination, a bright, happy, busy life.

Miss Cheryl Ann Spear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spear, 3106 Marfoer Ave. became the bride of James K. Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Robinson, 139 Forest Dr., Kent. The wedding was Sunday April 24 at 3:30 p.m. in the First Christian Church. A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony. The bride's wedding party comprised bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Davis and Miss Phyllis Modgign. Charles W. Robinson, brother of the bride-groom served as best man. Ushers were John Robinson, Raymond Narwad, Jaya Rhodes.

The new Mrs. Robinson has been employed as a typist for the Dial Finance Co., Akron, since graduation from Stow High School in 1957. Mr. Robinson, a graduate of Roosevelt High, is associated with an A & P Market, Akron, as assistant manager.

Mrs. Bella Shaya, sister of Mrs. Herbert Lauer, has returned to her home in Springfield after spending the winter visiting at the Lauer residence.

Van Wilson wishes to express his gratitude and appreciation to Fred Drayer and Charles Rush, members of the Munroe Falls Fire Department, who worked so expertly in administering oxygen to her before the ambulance arrived to rush her to City Hospital for emergency treatment Thursday, April 28. Van has been very ill at her home since Easter and is still continuing.

Deepest sympathy to Mrs. John Miller, South Main Street, on the recent death of her mother, Mrs. Hiram Bick, in Berlin, Pennsylvania.

BOOSTER BOWLING IS SUCCESSFUL

by Larry Ken

The Stow-Kent Lanes "Booster Benefit" was a financial success Thursday. The Stow Booster Club received the proceeds of the evening hours 7-10 p.m. bowling which amounted to $145.

Speaking of the Boosters, one of the first Booster projects is near completion. The new four-sided, ceiling scoreboard and glass-backboards have arrived for the High School gym. From the boys to the Boosters.....Thanks!

Bad Baseball Week

It was a bad week for the Stow baseball team. Three straight losses provided the worst week of the season. Coventry clipped the Bulldogs 5-6 Monday. Stow lost a thriller to Norton Wednesday by a 5-4 count. Stow stepped out of its league Friday to meet Kenmore. The move proved fatal as Stow dropped a 4-0 decision.

Bigger and Better Things

If you're a regular fan at Stow baseball games you're sure to have missed the presence of Coach Harold Sloop. Coach Sloop has moved on to bigger and better things. Mr. Sloop is now head Coach of Akron University's Vanity 9. Mr. Sloop cannot be officially recognized as head coach because he doesn't hold his Master's degree. But in reality Mr. Sloop is the big boss when the Zips take the field.

New Coach

Mr. Bob Sonnhalter, varsity basketball coach, has taken over Mr. Sloop's baseball coaching duties.

ACCELERATED PROGRAM FOR 7th GRADERS IN FALL OF '60

by Gene Dominic, Principal of Stow Jr. High School

September of 1960 will find Stow seventh graders in a new building, (Lakeview) and engaged in a new educational program. For the first time in the history of the Junior High School, students will be grouped according to ability and aptitude.

The primary purpose of the grouping is to present an accelerated and enriched curriculum to those students capable of such a program. A remedial tract will also be established in all subject areas to meet the needs of a pupil who may be deficient in one or more subjects. It is conceivable, that a pupil may be enrolled in an accelerated mathematics course and at the same time, be enrolled in the remedial language arts section.

The criteria for the grouping is listed below:

1. STANDARDIZED TESTS (administered to all sixth grade)
   A. Stanford Achievement Test
   B. Otis Intelligence Test

2. TEACHER RECOMMENDATION

3. GRADE ACHIEVEMENT

4. PARENT CONSENT

The standardized testing program is now being carried on in all of the Stow elementary schools under the direction of Mrs. Amy Fisher, Junior High guidance counselor. Once the results of these tests are known, sixth grade teachers will be consulted and comprehensive studies will be made of the test scores and the present achievement levels of the pupils who may be eligible to be placed in the accelerated or remedial sections. The next step will be to have conferences between parents, pupils and Mr. Dominic, Junior High School principal. No child will be placed in the extreme section until pupil and parent approval has been obtained.

A pupil placed in the accelerated mathematics section will find that they are expected to cover two years work, (seventh and eighth grade mathematics) in one school year. Students achieving success in the seventh grade mathematics course will then go on to take high school algebra in the eighth grade.

The advanced social studies and language arts sections will find their program one of enrichment rather than acceleration. More research, writing, and study will await students in these areas.

Students in the advanced sections will be expected to maintain a "B" average. Failure to meet this requirement will mean dismissal from the section. On the other hand, students in the average sections, (Eighty percent of the students will be in the average groups) will have the opportunity to be moved into an accelerated or enriched class.

The program is completely flexible in regard to students being moved from class to class. The remedial section will be composed of students of average intelligence who may have encountered difficulty in a particular subject. Individual and small group instruction on the pupil's achievement level will insure a correction of the deficiency which may exist. Students will be selected for this group with as much care as they are for the accelerated section. Flexibility is also insured on this level, for a student may conceivably be moved from the remedial to an average section. An average pupil, encountering difficulty, may be moved to the remedial group.

It should be understood that pupils will be placed individually into sections and will not necessarily have all accelerated, all remedial or all average classes.
