HOME COMING - THE GAME AND THE DANCE

If that wasn't a super-duper game! The fellows made such headway every time they had the ball! We'll always remember... the way our elected court was driven past the stands amid the shouting and screaming of their admirers... the convertible stopping on the opposite side of the field, and the beauties escorted across the field in this order:

Joyce Anderson, escorted by Jim Cord; Lou Wooker by Dennis Marinides; Penny Powell by Jerry Miller; Robyn Reinhart by Tom Schouster; and Judy Thomas, escorted by Mike Klena.

In front of enraptured fans, Judy was declared Queen of the 1960 Homecoming, with a crown of flowers and a kiss from Student Council President Randy Morrison.

The dance Saturday night was fit for a queen. The Student Council, under the direction of Mary Ann Kaufmann, chairman of the decorating committee, had an outstanding dance. Yellow, green and violet were the colors of the false ceiling. Streaming from these were balloons and tickler tape. The "Mardi Gras" effect came through grotesquely, and the decorations were FABULOUS! It seems no one has ever gone to so much trouble to beautify the auditorium for a dance before.

At intermission, Linda Henderson crowned July, and Randy Morrison presented her with a bouquet of red roses. Lynn Jackson, Ralph Richardson, Addis Settle, Jim Bowen and Bob Hinkle were the football players appointed to present the royalty at the dance.

SPORTS CAR EVENT AT SHOP CENTER

A Gym-Khanna, sports car "skill of handling" event sponsored by the Sports Car Club of America, will take place Saturday, Oct. 22, at the Stow-Kent Shopping Center at 12 Noon. The event is open to the public audience, will be held in the parking lot at the Center.

NOLL, BECKER CLASH AT SCHOOL BOARD

School Board member Mrs. Jack Noll touched off vehement opposition in fellow-member Don Becker when she made the suggestion that parents, citizens groups and local clubs be encouraged to offer suggestions and/or "want lists" to the board relative to the school.

Becker strongly opposed the suggestion on grounds that laymen are not qualified to advise or even discuss professional problems such as school buildings or curricula, and that discussions between laymen and professionals would be a "waste of the professionals' time."

President Whalen ventured, "any well thought-out suggestion that might be made ... we could ponder over and put into consideration between architect, teachers, etc."

After a speech by Mrs. Lockhart, a member of the audience, citing examples of state-wide usefulness of such lay groups from other communities, President Whalen requested Mrs. Noll to bring her suggestion in concrete form to the next meeting.

The board also authorized the hiring of Nancy Tanner as an elementary school teacher, Donald Hixon as a substitute bus driver, and Mr. Noll, 7th grade teacher, as a field assistant basketball coach. ($225 added to his annual salary.)

Authorized purchase of equipment for Lakeview's music department ($202), new furniture for first grade, National Defense Act materials for science, math and foreign language classes ($2168.84).

Interspersed throughout these actions were lengthy discussions concerning early dismissal of high school 8th period study halls (the nays had it!); fencing in the football field parking lot (end-to-end telephone poles now, maybe a fence later?); possibilities of establishing a permanent foreign language lab at the high school (Super Van Brunt couldn't think of a place to house it) and assist in developing a program for the new building. This was preceded by a meeting with the Stow Public Library Board of Trustees, which has recently purchased the Frederick G. Noble property. This completed the land acquisition plans which will provide a building of approximately 7300 square feet. This space will include a room for the adult book collection, a children's room and a meeting room.

At present the Library Trustees are considering the need for a new building. Two additions had been made previously to the present structure, a former residential building. Anticipated city status and projected housing developments, along with a continued increase in circulation, seemed to make such planning imperative.

This year the architect firm of Tuchman and Cunat was retained to give counsel and to

JULY 4TH FILMS TONIGHT

Stow Community Council will hold an open meeting tonight (Oct. 20) showing movies of the July 4th celebration at 8:30 p.m. following the regular business meeting which will be at 8:00 p.m. in the main room of Town Hall.

A rolling science lab for elementary schools (future consideration)

The board discussed offering for a nominal lease to the Village of Stow their part of the parking lot at Town Hall after hearing a request that the school board pave same. If Stow wants to blacktop the lot while leasing it, they will be allowed to do so, but parking privileges would be retained by the schools. Mrs. Burgess, clerk of the school board, was asked to investigate the legality of such a lease.

Mr. Whalen requested that Van Brunt bring in the board an evaluation of the situation we find ourselves in with a curriculum director (this is the first year Stow schools have had such an office, held by Eugene Domico), that Van Brunt get immediate quotations on auditorium draperies and that a demonstration of the doors to the high school music room be accelerated during Christmas vacation without fail, even if it

NEW STOW PUBLIC LIBRARY

GOING ON NOBLE PROPERTY

The Stow Public Library Board of Trustees has recently purchased the Frederick G. Noble property. This completed the land acquisition plans which will provide a building of approximately 7300 square feet. This space will include a room for the adult book collection, a children's room and a meeting room.

Noting the scarcity of public meeting places for small community groups, Mrs. Hugh Siviers, librarian, has stated that this is an additional service which the library building could incorporate into a new building.

No definite date has been set for construction of the new building.
Hark, Hark, A Bark!

Anyone living close to others has an obligation of contributing to the peace of the neighborhood without forcing his neighbors to complain to the police in order to have quiet evenings.

Does your dog bark enough to be annoying to others? Does he make noise at other times? Take steps to stop him before your neighbor is a former friend and your purse is lighter because of a fine.

Dogs, men's best friends, are not necessarily the neighbors' joy. A dog which whines or barks incessantly, often inciting his canine friends to join in a chorus can be a source of misery to those living nearby.

Dogs can be trained. They can be taught commands and not annoy their neighbors with noise or vandalism.

Town Hall - Council Meeting

By Dan Schmidt

Council established rate schedules for two village properties in its October meeting and passed ordinances establishing rules and regulations for both.

Adell Durbin Park, set near the golf course, near the Ohio Turnpike, where a room may be rented for an evening from $5 to $35 by Stow residents, $10 to $40 for non-residents, with a few exceptions listed for such groups as Scouts, Community Council, United Fund, Inc. Hourly day-time rates were also scheduled for available space.

The other was Adel Durbin Park, setting a fee schedule for residents and non-residents for the use of the six shelters there, and applying different rules and regulations for park use.

Adel Durbin Park will soon have surfaced tennis courts, as Council passed a resolution accepting Tallmadge Asphalt & Grading Co.'s bid of $2,930 for the job.

The body voted to vacate a number of streets within the municipality, following the ordinance that such vacation is not detrimental to the general interest. (Vacating means the village is no longer responsible for the street's upkeep.)

Three Touchdowns Yield One Score; Two Are Nullified

The Ellet Orangemen were literally thrown all over the Bulldogs' field Friday night, but somehow managed to sneak away with an 8-6 victory. The Bulldogs won the game of statistics, but lost their homecoming.

Stow managed to score three times during the game, only to have two TD's nullified by penalties. One was a quarterback sneak by Kerr, the other, a 25-yard run by halfback Sandercox.

Sandercox, 180 lb. senior, running the ball for Stow the first time this year, electrified the crowd with his dazzling, shifty running efforts. He ran the ball 11 times during the game, gaining 175 yds.

After three scoreless quarters, Ellet scored on a 5-yard plunge which was set up by an Ellet interception of a Stow pass. With the immediate passing of quarter¬back Koeki, and running by Set¬tle and Sandercox, Stow marched the length of the field to pay dirt. Sandercox capped the drive with a tremendous run of 25 yds., putting the stands on their feet. The seventh Ellet tackler who hit "the horse," managed to pull him down in the end zone. The conversion for extra points failed.

The score was the only gain of the teams and the ball changed hands twice, Ellet was forced to punt on the fourth down. The formation was 5-15-0. Ellet recovering on Stow's 20. By the efforts of Lynn and Paul Jackson and Ellet, Stow's defensive line stopped the Orangemen's threat.

With 1 1/2 minutes left in the ball game, Stow's offense took over on their own 12-yard line. Five plays later (four of which were run by Sandercox) the ball lay on Ellet's 10. With one second left in the game, Sandercox' field goal attempt was wide.

Coach Forrester was very pleased by the great efforts of his "horse," Sandercox, and by Koeki's passing to ends Ryan and Westgate. Koeki completed 11 out of 16 passes for 135 yds. We hope to see the same cheering crowd next Friday (tomorrow) when Stow travels to Tallmadge.

A. Young, Ellsworth Rd., a vacuum cleaner; R. W. Wilbert, Englewood Rd., a life-size Patty Play Pal doll.

BULLDOGS AIR FER GrIFES AGAINST FELLOW-STUDENTS

by Terry Moore

On canvassing the football team to hear their reactions to last week's column where we quoted students' criticism of the players, we found the Bulldogs were "bugged" by very few things.

Pet peeves were: kids who criticize the team; People who complain but do nothing to help...those who say, "We're gonna get beat"...those who yell in bad taste from the stands...those who don't watch the game but run around the stands and parking lot.

Let's see if we can improve on these things!

meant replacement of a post-pombement-eone contractor.

The board evidently expects to hold to its plans to build the new elementary school at Fish Creek and Call Rds. regardless of Tri-County Planning Commissio-1 section’s opinion that another location would have been more desirable. Timing enters into the picture. Plans were to be viewed at the next board meeting.

(The Stow Press printing schedule precludes reporting the Oct. 19 meeting’s action in this issue, as meetings are held Wednesday nights; composition of the paper must be completed Tuesday noon.)
