MINISTER'S COLUMN

The object of Mother's Day is to recognize the mothers living and dead, who have contributed to the advancement of civilization. It is altogether right and fitting that the race of men should do this. What, my brother, father, son, the gratitude and appreciation to often dormant, buried beneath the hurry and fuss of life's commonplace. Stop a minute and think, deep and long, you will be the better off. The flowers, the bird, the hills, sky, stars will all have a message for you if you will stand by for a day.

The mightest influence on your children is mother, when you strike mother, you strike the race. What honor, my brother man, you do the soldier, is he more worthy than mother? Soldiers have been deified and worshipped from the beginning. Battlefields, with its blood and death, its hatred, its never ending sting can well be abolished from the calendar of life, but mother, Oh mother, the world needs you. Come then, my friend, honor where honor is due. Come along to the Church, wear a blossom, a spray of gratitude. Come to the quiet place where your soul may rest and be made strong. Come, let us think together of the best mother in all the world, your mother. The noblest thoughts my soul can claim, The holiest words my tongue can frame,

Unworthy are to praise the name More sacred than all other. An infant, when her love first came A man, I find it just the same, Reverently I breath her name, The blessed name of Mother.

GEO. M. HULME, Minister

STATEMENT

The paper this week is brief. It nearly expired. It is not real healthy yet. It will require some nursing. The medicine of appreciation on the part of many and the generosity of the printers are some of the reasons why it is NOW alive. Then, of course, there are a few who advertise and who paid the editor a sum of money thereby reducing the deficit. That was helpful. We are only about $20 behind (not count-

In our Funeral Home there is a fine pipe organ, and its wonderful music is available to all as a part of our service.
