MINISTER'S COLUMN

Are you a thoroughbred? Some time ago I was deeply offended for a man told me that my dog was not a thoroughbred. I said, "See here my dog's mother is a thoroughbred and my dog's father is a thoroughbred of another stock." Now, said he, "That's it. Your dog is not a thoroughbred." Now I carried my point to the veterinary. Said he, "Your dog strictly speaking has no pedigree, however, your dog acquires the finer qualities of both the mother and father dogs." Now then, this jam that I got into led me to think seriously on the subject of thoroughbreds. So I asked again why do dog fanciers demand thoroughbreds? My answer was, you get a better dog. By that they mean, a more intelligent dog, a teachable dog, a dog you can be proud of. Now sir, this is interesting. My friend tells me he would have nothing but thoroughbreds, thoroughbred chickens, cows, hogs, rabbits. And why? The hens are better layers, says he, pokers are easier fattened, make solid, sweet meat. Cows, just doesn't pay to have anything but thoroughbreds. My stock is registered, said he with an air of pride. They produce something, milk, butter, meat, all of the higher order.

Now, my friend, a good object lesson is this: are you a thoroughbred? Come of good stock, do you? Don't wince, whine and shirk and complain? Thoroughbred. I just pity the mongrel, anything that is not thoroughbred. Seems as if it was inferior like rubbins of corn or scrubby fruit or undernourished.

Thoroughbred, the man of purpose, big in soul, who stands out as a clean-cut exemplary life, busy for God and home and Church. Not contaminated with the inferior. Thoroughbred, too big to stoop to anything mean or bad or small. A thoroughbred a man honored of God and loved of his fellows. A thoroughbred is one who graces any community.

—GEO. M. HULME

brought back Mrs. Stein's aunt, Mrs. Huff, who will visit them for a time.

Did you miss them? Charles Stahl and son John went nutting the first part of this week at or near Fredericksburg (butternuts). They brought back two and one half bushels—or was it more?

C. B. Mincks, his wife, also his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. R. B. DeLong of Macksburg, Ohio, left Tuesday for a two weeks visit with Dr. Leo Mincks of Okemah, Okla.

Did you notice the large number of brown gold and yellow flowers at church last Sunday? In these bouquets were some thirty-five varieties of marigolds. For these flowers we have Mrs. M. Cowell, Metz Road, Darrowville to thank. The large basket of zinnias last Sunday and also the Sunday before were furnished by Mrs. Saner, Arndale Road. The giant bronze and red dahlias were sent by J. B. Hites, East Kent Road.

We hear that Mrs. Oscar Roberts is living in Stow again. We would be pleased to see her at church again.

It is expected that the Summit County Horticulture Society will meet at Community Church the second Wednesday in November.

Mrs. Woods, 500 Hudson road or thereabouts, attended the Chicago Fair this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Everhart and son Lawrence, Jr., of Canal Fulton visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Furst, Hudson road.

Mr. Max, Hudson road, attended the Chicago Fair this past week.

Geo. Chandler, CCC Camp Knox, Kentucky, writes to friends that he expects to be transferred soon to a CCC Camp in Idaho. Later: George is on his way to California in place of going to Idaho.

Mrs. Newton Gulse, Munroe Falls, celebrated her birthday last Sunday with a special dinner. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kastens, Graham road.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Biddle, Graham road, entertained relatives from Butler, Pa., last weekend.

H. B. Greenleaf, Ritchie road, has been digging his Michigan Russet potatoes this past week. He challenges anyone to show bigger ones. He will have a few for sale.

Miss Elizabeth Schuman, Hudson road, is attending Kent State this year. We hear she is pursuing a liberal arts course.

During the past month some 285 to 290 yards of gravel have been spread, according to Mr. Valentine, road supervisor, on Franklin and Elmwood roads. Much work has also been done in opening up a gravel pit and improving roads to same, north of Hudson drive. This is in the northwest part of the township. Construction work on East Kent road is progressing rapidly.

Due to duplication of names the following streets have been renamed by the township trustees. Liberty road off the Kent road has been named South Sanford; Maple road in Paradise Park has been renamed Edgewood drive; Elm road from 245 Munroe Falls road east is now known as Echo road.

The Martha Circle, Stow Church of Christ, met Thursday at the home of Mrs. G. G. Gheen, Kent road, while the Esther Circle met on the same day with Miss Mabel Carline, Kent road.

One hammer, a basket and other articles used at the last Stow Flower Show remain unclaimed. If you belong to any of these items see Mrs. Dyke.

Mrs. Zelia M. Walters is expected to preach this next Sunday at the Community Church. Plan to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Shakespeare drove over to Johnstown, Pa., last Tuesday.

GUILD NOTICE
The Ladies' Guild will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the church. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 by the hostesses Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Woodring, Mrs. Stockman and Mrs. Mincks (if she is here). A luncheon charge of 25c will be made, same to be placed 1000 per cent in the Guild treasury.

Of special interest at this meeting will be a WHITE ELEPHANT SALE. Bring the things you have around the house which you cannot use, yet do not care to destroy. Wrap the article carefully in an attractive package as the best looking packages always bring the most money. Bring your pocketbooks with plenty of money therein. Be prepared to bid. Mrs. Tidball will be the auctioneer.

BIBLE VERSE CONTEST
Sunday school members have you thought about writing an explanation of one of the Bible verses which have appeared reprinted in this paper. Remember some one will win the five dollar prize in trade, good at any of those who advertise here during the month of October. You can have five dollars worth of groceries, chicken feed, ice cream, coal, nails, toys or anything you may choose. Then there will be the added value to you of thinking about something worthwhile. DOG NEWS—VERY SPECIAL!

Herman Harper of Arndale road sold one of his Beagle hound pups this past weekend.

George Seigelhorst, Hudson road, expects to build a dog house this next week for his pup ‘Kayo.’

Bob Stein, Hudson road, gave his dog Fluffie a bath last Monday. From all appearance Fluffie would need a bath quite often.

Foster Young, Arndale road, has a new Spitz pup. He worked very late (or early) Saturday night constructing a home for the arrival.

C. V. Shakespeare, Munroe Falls, boards two Boston Terriers who are death on cats. Warning—do not drop off any extra cats in front of their place if you want the cats to live and have a good home.

Chas. Stahl sent either Mike or Ike over into Pennsylvania recently.

Derricks have one new puppy dog.

STOW JUBILEE AND ROAD OPENING

Stow Civic Association are sponsoring a grand jubilee and road opening celebration to be held on Hallowe’en night.

All lodges and Stow organizations are invited to have concessions and are expected to participate. The County Road Commissioners have given their permission to rope off as much of the road as will be necessary. There will be a costume dance, a prize will be awarded for the best dressed or masqueraded individual. A brass band is expected. The road department will send a speaker who will make an address about the road. There will be one or more prize boxing contests. The idea is to make it an all Stow affair. The committee plan on having a real time. Plan to attend.
