MINISTER'S COLUMN

The racket. The definition of which is a scheme or game, or organized activity of the criminal underworld. It means an uproar, commotion, unlawful, indecent, etc., etc. The racket is a sort of a tag or label or rubber stamp used promiscuously, without due qualification. Someone has said that religion is a racket. Medicine, too, has been branded a racket. However, the racket we have in mind today is the racket of strikes. If the world has ever had an organized racket, its name is Capital, and it has a big brother whose name is Labor. Can we have a world without capital, or wealth, or resources, in some form to carry on with? So far the problem is not complex. Wealth in some form, in raw or finished product is legitimate and desirable. Now, you can't get wheat into the granary or coal out of the mine without labor. So we must have skill, brawn and machinery to carry on in our present stage of civilization. Now the racket starts when capital exploits labor, and the racket appears when labor plots to overthrow capital.

The history of capital, in the major part, is the history of tyranny, its fingers through the ages, in every land and in every epoch, have trickled with human blood. Mighty fortunes have been built on the broken backs of men. The sound that comes up from the past is the bitter cry of children and of despair of women. This ghost haunts the abode of men. Racket? Yes, racket when labor battles against capital using vicious weapons, takes the law in their own hands, ignores the plea of reason and arbitration, led on and coerced by agitators, strikes madly and strikes to kill. It's a wicked racket. And all this uproar in a Christian nation and with a highly civilized people. Think a minute, labor is only a small part of a great folk. There is a great myriad of the professional class, preachers, teachers, lawyers, doctors, business men, statesmen, farmers, etc. This mighty block of humanity are neither capitalists or laborers. Yet they must suffer. They have from time immemorial because of the sins and grievances of two giants, called Capital and Labor. Now, brethren, the fault is in a system. A system that makes very rich men will always make very poor men.

Bellamy, in his Equality, pictures a coach propelled by human beings, while the rich and favored ride. Now and then when the coach tips or strikes a breaker in the road someone, half asleep on a high and cushioned seat topples off. His seat is immediately taken, and unfortunate, he is obliged to take hold and push. Humanity comes, exists, suffers, serves some favored, multitudes thanking their Maker for the rest of a coffin and peace of the grave, and we, brethren are responsible for the two inhuman racketSj namely, Capital and Labor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
THE CHURCH CHOIR will present their concert and cantata the evening of Easter Sunday. The exact time is 7:30 p.m., April 31st. Place: The Stow Community church.

PREFARATIONS for Easter Sunday will be made in a series of meetings to be held in the Community church the week preceding Easter on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, each evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will be April 16th to 19th inclusive. Rev. Hulme tells us that a sermon will be delivered at each service by a different minister. If interested in our church you should attend and bring your friends.

THREE MINUTES
Two thoughts brought out in the Minister's short talk before the Bible school last Sunday were as follows:
1. The matchless authority of the Bible.
2. The indestructible vitality of the Bible. It has been clubbed, stoned, burned, annihilated and eliminated, yet it still lives.

"The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart." Heb. 4:12.

THANK YOU
We wish to extend our thanks and express our appreciation to our friends and the people of Stow for their loyal support and attendance at the entertainment sponsored by us last Friday evening.

Al Stein bought a new house on Marhoffer avenue recently.

P. A. Williamson had his tonsils out last Thursday a. m. and was eating ice cream and drinking milk Thursday p. m.—and selling gas Monday.

Rev. Hulme says we are often so busy with so many things that we never get anything done. Expect he had the editor of this sheet in mind when he said that.

Mrs. Knight, son Harris, and James Cross as driver left last Monday for Arizona. We hope to have a letter from “Jimmy” to publish next week.

Thursday, April 18th, Ralph Haartje of West Arndale road will be twenty-one years old.

Miss Betty Lou Harper of Diagonal road has been quarantined with the measles.

Mrs. Playford F. Robinson was operated upon last Saturday morning in St. Thomas hospital. At present she is doing as well as could be expected.

If there are any bad roads in Stow H. J. Stockman can find them. It was necessary for Jack Marhoffer to assist him out of the mire in the woods on South Marcella avenue, last Saturday.

A healthy well fed body often times has much to do with a healthy outlook on life.

The anthem by the choir was especially fine last Sunday. Let us have more of this kind of music each Sunday. Incidentally it was quite evident that there were not enough copies of music to go around. Who will supply more music for the choir?

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are new people who have recently moved in on East Arndale road. Mr. Taylor is employed at the Goodyear.

Miss Bessie Hamrick is making her home for a time with Mrs. Michaels of West Arndale road.

If you would appreciate a Victrola and good records the editor of this sheet knows where same may be secured free of charge.

it so we had to take it out. Ho! Hum! Such is life.

James B. Hites, Wayside Garden Shoppe, Kent road, tells us that now is the time to reseed and fertilize lawns. The best fertilizer is "Marlo." He did not tell us whether or not he had it for sale, but we would not be surprised if he did sell it. Fertilize, water, and dig around your evergreens now. Also dig around all your plants and shrubs before the spring rains come.

Thursday, April 11th, Fae Marie Haartje was eight years old. Saturday she will celebrate with a party.

Miss Jean Ann Woodring, Darrowville, has the old fashioned German measles.

Mr. Rimmel, instructor in science and manual training, Stow High school, is married—in fact much to the surprise of everybody he has Lest you forget—this paper comes to you because the Falls News is kind enough to do our linotype, Mr. Frank Howe does the printing at very reasonable rates, and there are those who advertise and thereby help pay the expense of printing, delivery, etc.

Now no one makes any profit on this paper (except the Editor who tries to profit by his mistakes) so in order to help things along it is recommended that you subscribe to the Falls News, give Mr. Howe a job of printing occasionally, and patronize our advertisers.

P. S. You can help the Editor out by handing in news items. There are not so many this week because the editor, reporters and circulation department were all sick last Monday evening and remained at home in bed where they should be.

THE CAMEL
The camel, at the close of day, Kneels down upon the sandy plain To have his burdens lifted off, And rest to gain.

My soul, thou too should'st to thy knees, When daylight draweth to a close, And let the Master lift the load And grant repose.

With all tomorrow's work to do,
If thou thy burden all the night
Dost carry through.

The camel kneels at break of day,
To have his guide replace his load,
Then rises up anew to take
The desert load.

So thou should'st kneel at morning's dawn,
That God may give thee daily care,
Assured that He no load too great
Will make thee bear.
