MINISTER'S COLUMN

Don't kill the goose that lays the golden egg. That is the old adage. "What would you do if you were in my place?" said a friend on the street. "Now," said he, "my son, my only child, the young man I have set up in business, he has ceased to care for his father. He comes no more to my home, he does not care to have me go to his home. Now this is the situation, recited my friend, my son's wife dislikes my wife. My wife is not my son's mother. My wife has past on, so there is no blood tie between my son and my present wife. But, said my friend, the situation is most intolerable. I love my son. I am on the shady side of sixty. I crave fellowship with my only child. However, my son treats it all too lightly and passes me by." My young friend you will never find another father. A good honorable parent is to be respected and honored. Don't kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

Our neighbor of some years ago, a widow having a married son and wife rooming under the same roof. The son under pressure of his wife borrowed seven hundred dollars from his mother, got possession of the home, snapped the cord of affection that previously existed between mother and son, and the mother is now homeless, penniless, and in her declining years she sobs the story of how she lost her home, her money, her boy. Again I say, don't kill the goose that lays the golden egg. Mothers are always laying golden eggs.

I read in this morning's Plain Dealer, April 27th, the Nazis of Germany boldly turn down Christianity. Christianity, that law of love, of truth, of honesty, of peace, of good-will, that revelation of God through the highest and noblest system of ethics and conduct of life that the human race has ever known. Don't kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

There are kindly disposed influences, invisible they are, there are spiritual values, fragrant as the flowers and as silent as the night, you may command them, you may live by their energy, if you will. If you break the contact, if you grieve the urge at your soul, if you ruthlessly turn away, mark well my friend, you, sir, kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

Robert Bruce watched the spider, from his hiding in the barn. The spider held fast to the upward cable, as it toiled along. This lesson encouraged and immortalized Bruce. He arose from defeat, rallied the shattered army of Scotland and achieved victory.

You say you are sick, poor, discontent, defeated. Why? Can't you find the nest where the goose lays the golden egg? Has it never laid an egg for you? Change your attitude toward God and life, assert the positive, hold fast the truth. Claim for yourself health, happiness, and your portion of life's necessities, stick to it, don't let go. It's when you weaken, when you doubt, then it is that you kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

GEO. M. HULME, Minister

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MOTHERS' DAY is this Sunday. Rev. Hulme will conduct services Sunday morning in memory and in honor of our mothers. Plan to attend church on Mothers' Day.

A CHURCH NIGHT get-together meeting is to be held the last Sunday night in this month at 7:30 p.m., Stow Community Church. The D. of A., the Junior Order, and the American Legion are invited to attend. It is probable that the Men's Chorus will sing, the orchestra will play and Mr. A. J. Kurinsky and his violin will be there to make some real music. If you want to know more about the meeting ask Rev. Hulme, or—come that night and find out.

MEN'S CHORUS PRACTICE, Sunday night, 7:30 p.m. Let's have a crowd of singers. Don't forget.

The Minister's Three Minutes In Bible School

In trying to listen to the Minister and someone else at the same time we missed some from each. Here is what we got from the Minister.

"Come to Bible School and receive training for the greater service and larger things."

There are two great schools of evidence:

1. The evidence of God without.
2. The evidence of God within.

GOD WITHOUT

The great teacher told us to "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin. "And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. "Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which..."
today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith."

GOD WITHIN

Again Paul, the Apostle says: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" "If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

Mrs. Dorothy Rearick, this week and next, is visiting friends in Cleveland.

Mr. C. E. Beckwith, 432 Hudson road, has a new electric refrigerator.

Mr. Russell D. Williams, 161 Williamson road, is ill. The doctor ordered him to stay in bed two months.

Charles Dunn is now helping Mr. W. V. Smith in the directory business.

Mr. Charles Furst, 735 Hudson road, was sick last Tuesday with a sore toe.

Mrs. W. C. Crichton will honor her mother and father with a family dinner on Mothers' day.

Recent additions to CCC camp are Roland Roxbury and Joe Corley. Roland Roxbury is in Minnesota and expects to go to Idaho soon.

The Red Cross drive is on this week. Give your dollar for a year's membership to the Stow committee (in place of Akron).

The minister still has a dollar which he will pay for the second issue of the Community Church News. Who has a copy?

Will do general painting, interior decorating, wall paper cleaning and papering.—cheap. Quality of work guaranteed. (Leave word at Isaly's). Ralph Morgan. (Adv.)

Among those who are papering are Mr. Shaffer, Hiwood avenue, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gowin, Franklin road, and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Sanford, Hiwood avenue.

Want to hear some good music? Well, just slip into the Mecca Shoppe some evening while Oyler is playing the mouth organ and Gilletly sings and plays the guitar. Oyler too, sings sometimes.

Business is getting good. The Stow Hardware last week sold two Something a good many people in Stow and vicinity seem to forget about gardening time: "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates."

Bob McNab, 137 Thorndale avenue, manager of the local A. & P. store won the contest for having the most sales during the first three months of this year. Stores competing were in Hudson, Kent, Ravenna, and the Falls. He gets three days extra added to his vacation this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Garver, 142 West Arndale road, drove down to Antioch in Monroe county, Ohio, last weekend. They visited Mrs. Garver’s folks, Mr. and Mrs. Starkey, who are not in the best of health. Foster Young, a neighbor, took care of the livestock while Mr. Garver was gone.

Mr. Charles Traxler, a charter member of Stow Community church, who now lives in Akron, visited our church last Sunday. He taught the Men’s Class and stated that he was much pleased to see the good attendance.

The Four-H club Busy Workers of Munroe Falls held their first meeting of the year on May 4th at the home of Miss Charlotte Dorsey. New officers were elected for the coming year. The Busy Workers will meet on the first and third Friday of each month.

The Martha Circle of the Stow Church of Christ will sponsor a quilt exhibit at the church parlor Wednesday afternoon and evening, May 15th. Prizes will be given for the oldest and prettiest quilts. What have you to enter in this exhibit? Admission 10c. Refreshments.

Golden Text for this Sunday: "So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and everyone members one of another."—Romans 12:5.

Mr. Repard Butler, East Arndale and baby Butler have just recovered from the mumps.

Mr. L. G. Lusk has a new baby girl, also a new DeSoto, and we hear that the front end of the DeSoto just about has Mr. Lusk's goat.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Powers of Marhoefer avenue have as their guests for two weeks their daughter and husband from Pontiac, Mich.

Mrs. C. A. Thomas' daughter, Mrs. W. K. Delhaute, and two children, Patricia and Tommie, have returned to their home at Grand Rapids, Mich., after a two weeks visit here.

Jean Nesbitt of Elm road will be hostess this Sunday afternoon at a tea honoring the members of this year's graduating class.

Mrs. C. A. Thomas was hostess to the Berkshire Study club on Monday night. The subject of the program was "Lullabies My Mother Used To Sing." Roll call was answered by hobbies of my mother.

Jimmie Nesbitt entertained twenty guests at his home last Saturday evening at a party. Games were the diversion of the evening.
