MINISTER’S COLUMN

Are you good company for yourself? Robinson Crusoe fared very well on a lonely island. He engaged his mind and activities in many profitable ways, and when deliverance came he had a message of experience for ages to come. The souls that have made this world worth while are they who have come up out of the silence. John the Baptist was such a one, Mohammed was another, Moses, Lincoln and Confucius, great leaders, men outstanding in genius. Poets, authors, inventors, up they come from the quiet and solitude of year spent in meditation and brooding on some worthy task.

The Galillean after some two thousand years has no competitor, truly this man was a spirit of the quiet place.

With this information, are you good company for yourself? Do you feel uncomfortable when alone? Can you tolerate yourself? Do you feel impelled to run to a neighbor, or go to a show, or off to the club, anywhere to be in a crowd? What’s the trouble, brother? Don’t you like your own company? If not, why impede yourself on others? Or why not try to be good company for yourself? No one can play well in any game where team work counts until he can play well himself. If one excels in individuality he will achieve among his fellows. If he be not up to par then his place is always weak in the game. Stand alone, my brother. Stand on your own feet. Think for yourself. Don’t see-saw up and down with every wind that blows. Best of all, live answer for the hope within. Know for yourself, then be strong and unflinching. Don’t cling to some creed or dogma just because grandfather had convictions. Be yourself, develop the soul within. Simon Legree was frightened when alone. Ghosts and specters was his portion when out of company with his pals. The world produces much noise, strife, discord. The soul should find rest, peace and poise in great values as the hills, the sky, the sunset. The soul must dare to be alone, must challenge the fret and fuss of life by stepping aside where poets, dreamers and the mighty live. Are you good company for yourself? That depends on your thought, on the urge within, on the program you have for life. The colored man says, “When I am left alone with my thoughts I fall asleep. But the white brother, alone with his thoughts, he often takes his own life. Good company for yourself, that depends on the

GEO. M. HULME, Minister

ANNOUNCEMENTS

This Sunday morning Rev. Hulme will preach. The subject of his sermon is “Fishers of Men.” You are cordially invited to attend this Sunday morning church service.

Sunday evening our regular monthly church night get-together, get-acquainted service will be held.

It has been the aim of Rev. Hulme to have these meetings different in character than the usual morning church program. We want the folks of the community to make a special effort to attend at this time. This Sunday being near Memorial Day the patriotic orders of Stow, namely, the American Legion, the Junior Order, and the D. of A. have been invited and are expected to be there. There should be a church full.

A special program has been arranged.

The Men’s chorus will perform, and this time Rev. Hulme will deliver a sermon, the subject of which is “How much then is a man better than a sheep?”

Prayer Meeting. You are urged to attend. This service is held at the church, 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday evening.

RALLY DAY. Two weeks ago the Bible School voted to hold a Rally Day the first Sunday in June. Now, we cannot just say we will have a Rally Day, forget all about it and then have a crowd when the time comes. It is as Rev. Hulme said, in his three minute Bible School talk, individual work is necessary, also team work is essential. Organize your class for a 100 per cent attendance the first Sunday in June.

Remember PENNIES are to be saved and brought in by the bag full for that special monthly collection, which will be taken at church Sunday morning, June 2nd.

THE ORCHESTRA expect to put on a special program the first Sunday evening in June. More about this next week. Orchestra members please remember to bring all music to practice at the church 6:00 p.m. Wednesday night.

OTHER CHURCH ACTIVITIES. If you sing the choir deserves your attention and support. Last Sunday morning Perry A. Schnee's solo was much enjoyed by the congregation, as was also the splendid anthem by the choir. Mr. Trommer directed in the absence of Forrest Hawk.

Choir practice is held each Wednesday at the church, 8:00 p.m.

GUILD NOTICE. We missed many of our ladies at the Guild meeting last week on Wednesday.

The ones who did get out for the luncheon enjoyed a fine meal and plenty of everything. The next meeting will be a picnic dinner at Mrs. DeRusha's on East Graham road. Members make a point to be there and bring your friends. Let's have a large attendance. We meet but once a month, the third Wednesday of each month. Keep this day for the Ladies' Guild of Stow Community Church. Time 12:30 noon.

Ladies' Bible Class Notice. The Ladies' Bible class invites all the ladies of Stow who do not go elsewhere to come with them on Sunday morning. We are having a fine class and a fine lesson each Sunday. But we miss some of our members on Sunday mornings. We will look for you tomorrow, also we are more than anxious for newcomers. Come and enjoy our fellowship with us.—Mrs. P. A. Schnee, Secretary.

SOMETHING should be said about this paper. Last week's edition was a disappointment to many who expected more from the pictures. However some who received poor copies exchanged them for good ones. There are still a few good prints left if you wish one. There is some doubt in the editor's mind whether that edition was worth all it cost.

To begin with we are passing over too much "copy" to the linotype manufacturers—much of this copy is not exactly church news and accordingly they have felt justified in raising the price—for mid-

Furthermore—the cost in dollars and cents was rather excessive, even though nearly everyone gives us reduced rates, the over all cost (when we get it paid) was $28.32. This was for 1200 copies, of which over 1100, so far as we know, were delivered. The cost broken down is as follows:
- Linotype, printing and paper .................. $12.00
- Pictures .......................... $ 3.00
- Cuts .......................... $ 8.32

6:30, May 31st, are rapidly nearing completion.

A splendid nine-piece orchestra has been engaged for the evening.

Those in charge of the arrangements announce a tentative program which will include short talks and toasts by Mr. Janyard, Mr. Flickinger, Frank Graner and Wilbur Pardee. The alumni quartet under the direction of Elizabeth Ferrine have arranged several selections which will be given during the program immediately following the dinner.

Elaborate decorations are being planned. The enthusiasm among alumni and members of the graduating class indicate a splendid evening.

Advance ticket sales assure an early disposal of the 150 dinner reservations.

Remember no tickets will be sold after midnight, May 30, unless special arrangements are made with Wilbur Pardee or Hugh Nickerson, ticket committee.
