MINISTER'S COLUMN

Let us build a new world. Let us begin at Stow. The timber we must use is you and you and you. One tires of the old world, it has many faults, of late its ailments are quite noticeable. No one seems to know exactly what it is all about, but all our wise men say it is in distress. Headache, perhaps indigestion, may be growing pains, however it is out of fix.

Stow being the center of the universe and in many ways favored by nature and otherwise for happy and prosperous homes, it would appeal as a fitting place to launch the big idea. A New World.

Let us have no thieves, no liars in this new world. Honest, honorable, decent and law-abiding people may have a place in this new Kingdom. The people are to be actuated by kindness, solicitous for the welfare of others, interested in constructive life in everything. The church should be a guarantor of everything needful to make life one endless round of satisfaction. The church should absorb lodges, clubs, insurance companies, and every big brother movement that saves or guides humankind across the wrecks of time. Oh, my church, hast thou delegated thy work to Y. M. and Y. W. to community chests and a thousand and one kindred organizations? What has thou left to do? Jesus Christ would live in you and He would guide you to feed, to clothe, to teach, to build again immortal character in the human derelicts, called men. A New World. It is on the way. The rumbling of every land proclaims it, the strange, hush before the storm heralds a new day. Atrocities, events that stun and shock the soul speak of the mighty change to be wrought across the earth, the early dawn of which is here. A New World. Send the Jew home, prophecy calls them back, Jehovah God gave them a land forever. Segregate and colonize the Negro, our forefathers stole them from their own far off land, shipped them across the sea in chains, give them back, my country, restore them to their own land.

Production, fields, factories, land and sea, let us have your gifts. Produce, give, I say, give of your bounty to everyone, give pressed down and running over. Who has too much?

Distribution, a law of which we lack nothing save the practice of it. Trains, trucks, ships, rapid transits on land, sea and sky, come let us distribute the earth’s blessings.

Co-operation, a splendid maxim, away with competition, in this new day write co-operation over every door-post, everybody together the Golden Age is here, let selfishness perish from the earth, let co-operation be the order of the day.

Responsibility, a high and noble spirit is that. Responsibility for all mankind everywhere. No mother’s son a wanderer on the earth, a home and a job and a garden spot for every human soul.

Come my people of the land of Stow, the hope of this staggering, tear-stain, cruel, heartless, beastly thing that has slaughtered and scattered groans and death among the sunshine and beautiful flowers and streams and hallowed sunsets of God’s world must stop. Rise up from your lethargy, my brother. Our hope is to crown the Galilean King.

Alice Shaffer wins a dollar this week for handing in the most personal items.

Stow Fire Department will give the Auxiliary an entertainment and supper next Monday night.

The sponsors of the Stow band will hold their next meeting February 4th, 7:30 p.m. at the school house. Mr. N. W. Biggs is president of the association and Mrs. Arthur J. Brust, secretary. Mr. A. L. Jones, Cuyahoga Falls, is the new director of the band.

We were glad to see Mrs. Martha Martin of 123 Maple road at church Sunday. On account of serious illness Mrs. Martin has been unable to attend church for sometime.

Mrs. Fred Heming of Akron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bishop, Hiwood avenue, is in the People’s Hospital where she is recovering from an operation.

Mrs. Lois V. Harlow of Liberty road has a new position in Akron with the Family Service as nursery visitor for the Allen school.

We don't know whether Levi Moyer was sleeping on the job or whether the coal man was working late, but last Friday night Moyer was aroused from his slumber by the delivery of a load of Black Diamonds (?) at the church.

William Shaffer, Hiwood avenue, is living at home again. Wonder how many knew he had not been living at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bailey, Sanford avenue, and son Luke left for Tennessee Friday, January 18, to visit Mr. Bailey's father who is ill.

It is reported that all the members of Mrs. Cross’s class have memorized the ten commandments.

Steins and Monteiths attended the auto show in Akron recently. Wonder which one is figuring on buying a new car.

There is a proud mother at Lowe's who live on Overlook drive, Silverlake. Their guernsey cow has a baby heifer calf.

Mrs. Playford E. Robinson was in Marietta over the last weekend. She attended her father’s funeral.

Mr. Fred C. Viall, 190 Sanford avenue, celebrated his birthday last Friday, January 18th. His wife arranged a surprise party in his honor. We can't tell you his exact age, only he says he's not old enough to have any grandchildren, and yet the most exciting... experience of his life he tells us was in a storm on Lake Erie twenty years ago, July 5th.

Twelve o'clock noon each day, except Sunday, the Fire Department siren sounds. Don't get excited. This is to ascertain if the siren is in good working order. You also may set your watch by it.

The girls basketball team of Stow High School beat Coventry last Friday night. The boys lost to Coventry. We might therefore reason that the girls of Stow beat the boys.

It is reported that Harold Kaiser and Dean Bart had fires in their basements last Saturday and did not call the fire department. Be this as it may, there are a good many people in Stow this week who have fires in their basements and yet do not call out the F. D.

Alfred H. Moon an old time resident of Stow living for many years at 865 Hudson Road died last Sunday. He was only confined to his bed for a few days but had been in ill health for sometime. We extend our sympathy to those bereaved. Funeral services were held Thursday.

We hear the Sanners on Arndale road had a party at their house last Saturday night.

In a recent issue we told you about Louis S. Griggy, 248 Ritchie road trading cars. In addition to the Chevrolet and two Fords, which have been in his possession recently, he has traded cars again and now has a Buick sedan. It wouldn't surprise us any, if he had a Rolls Royce by this time next year.

Foster Connell left a few days ago for CCC camp. This leaves our violin class "high and dry" without a teacher. Possibly someone will be good enough to volunteer to instruct some half dozen young hopefuls in this art.

William Shaffer's class had a contest recently to obtain a name for their class. Many good names were suggested but Charles Gowan won the dollar prize, with the name, "Upstreamers."

And it seems that if you are a member of the Upstreamers and bring a new member or visitor you receive a New Testament. Charles Gowan seems to be winning, for he/brought a visitor and won a New Testament last Sunday.

STOW BAND ASSOCIATION
A good school band is an asset to any community. The advantages of musical training are often denied pupils having the most talent because the school curriculum does not provide for adequate musical training. The Stow Band Association is an organization whose purpose it is to promote this training in our Stow schools.

Each purchaser of a membership in this association sponsors one band member for a period of six months. Funds are thereby made available for the compensation of a director, for the purchase

Last Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. Hillson B. Bailey and family lost all that they had when their home on Marija road was burned to the ground. They were not at home at the time of the fire, the entire family having left early to take Mr. Bailey to work at 6 a.m., after which Mrs. Bailey and children intended to stay with her sister in Akron. The sad part about their loss is that there was no insurance. Mr. Bailey intended to secure insurance Monday—and also a small home loan to pay off a small mortgage on the lot. Now all he has is the mortgaged lot. It would be nice if all of us could "chip in" and help him build some sort of shelter for his family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Headlee, who are charter members of Stow Community church and now live in New Martinsville, W. Va., celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday, January 25th. Relatives from Darrow-
