ARE YOU SAVED?

What a question sounds to some of you like old timey stuff, I pity them who have outgrown the Bible injunction, Be ye saved.

Stop dead still, every one of you, and seriously ask yourself, Am I saved? What must I do to be saved, cried the jailer down at Philippi at twelve o’clock midnight.

Yes, yes it may sound a bit queer to the young life that is carried along with the tide, to the folk who have outgrown Christianity, the mad mob that wink at spiritual things. Seriously now, think a minute, Are you saved?

If the orthodox theory of the Bible be true, man chooses his destiny. If he be saved that is his prerogative, his choice. If one is saved he must elect to be saved, he must act, he must choose, his life, his all must be committed one way or the other. No fault to find here, is there? So I ask, Are you saved?

Think again, Am I saved from a bad temper, drink, profanity, unclean lips, from being a liar, a ‘thief’, a degenerate? Am I saved from evil companions, from bad influences, from vulgar thoughts? Am I saved for my own best possibilities, for the highest and noblest and loftiest attainment of human life? Am I saved from meddling and mixing in the low, the base, the bad? Am I saved to have the manliness and the lofty purpose to help save the weaker brother?

Many good substitute words or synonyms may be used today to enlighten the mind on the mighty thought of salvation. Safe is a kin dred word. Is the young man safe? was a Biblical expression, the sob of a father for the son.

December 4th, 1918 Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, sailed for Paris to attend the World Peace Conference. His ovation probably surpassed anything ever accorded man before. Our President carried with him the famous fourteen points, intended to guide mankind to better ways than war, to make the world safe for Democracy. The purpose and passion of his great desire was to have the Nations of the earth commit themselves by pledge and treaty to be neighbors not murderers. His famous fourteen points were rejected.

Salvation of the Nations by treaty and agreement was lost in the babble and debate of statesmen. Selfishness and wicked ambitions carried the day. The world remains unsaved.

The world might have been saved in the sense that Nations would have ceased to rise against each other with demon desire to kill.

Come nearer, friend, honestly Are you saved? Does your life line up as one who intended to win the game? Have you back-bone? Have you purpose in your eye? Do people know very definitely just where you stand? If you are saved, you are committed, you have squared yourself, you no longer drift, you have made decision.

Saved, nothing soft, or silly, or unworthy of the highest type of mankind, strength or purpose. Saved, yes, saved. Saved and serving God, saved out of the swirl of destroying elements, saved to serve the Master.

Ministers Sermon:-A Generation That Is Past Feeling
Saved to do exploits, to be true and worthy.

If you are saved you are among the hand-picked fruit of the race, you bear the image of your Maker, you stand with the tried and true, and for you Heaven was conceived, organized and awaits the end of your sojourn.

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you are saved.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The subject of our lesson for next Sunday is, "The Spoken and the Written Word." When Paul and Silas were released from prison at Philippi by the earthquake the Jews, who were responsible for his imprisonment, suddenly realized that they had committed a grave error. They had decreed that Paul and Silas should be scourged. The decree was executed. There was a law in Philippi which made it unlawful to scourge a Roman. Paul was a Roman and when this was verified they were fearful that he would exercise his right and appeal to Caesar. That would have been very embarrassing for the court at Philippi. Consequently they sent word to Paul in the form of an apology and requested that he leave. Paul shrewdly demanded that the apology be delivered in person and it was. When Paul and Silas started down the Egnation Highway to Thessalonica these Jews were greatly relieved.

The Egnation Highway was beautifully laid in marble and Paul and Silas went with light hearts down that great white way. When they arrived at Thessalonica they went to the house of a man named Jason and on three consecutive Sabbaths Paul preached in the Synagogue. His work was so effective that the Jews became jealous, organized a band of lewd, tough men and started a riot. They dragged Jason from his house, accused him of harboring a traitor and made him post bond. Had Paul and Silas returned to the house of their friend the bond would have been forfeited. Consequently they quietly left the city and spared their friend further embarrassment.

In Paul's letter to the Thessalonians he explains that he worked day and night to support himself.

so he would not be a charge to anyone. Paul was a tentmaker as in all probability was Jason. Paul was a traveling evangelist who never took up a collection. Tent making in those days entailed the actual sewing of the cloth and you can envision Paul lacing his shuttle far, far into the night. He was truly a servant. “For he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.”

We extend an invitation for you to attend our class. Come and bring a friend.

SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

Starting this next Monday and continuing for a week or ten days an effort will be made to visit every home in the territory usually covered by this paper. If you have not done so already, you will be asked to subscribe for the Community Church News. We do this because the postoffice department will admit our paper to the mail as second class matter only, when, as, or if, in their opinion there are a sufficient number of bonafide subscribers.

You can pay the agent for your subscription in cash, or you can sign a printed card promising to pay. If you pay cash, insist on a receipt. It will read as follows: “Received of ........................ $........... as a contribution to the Community Church of Stow for the year 193... ........ cents of which is for a year’s subscription to the “Community Church News.”

For your information “a promise to pay” is recognized by the post office department as a “bona fide” subscription and as far as helping to get our paper entered in the mail as second class matter, it will be just as acceptable to us as cash. What we want, what we need, is subscribers.

For your protection the solicitor will bear a card with his own signature thereon, attested to by Frank Carlisle, J. P., with proper seal, also signature of the minister, Rev. Hulme and of the editor.

ADVERTISING

Rates Advanced

Since this paper was started, over two and one half years ago the printer has absorbed two advances in the price of linotype. Beginning with this issue he now pays just twice as much for linotype as in 1934.

Our circulation averages well over twice that of the first issues.

The only thing that has not changed since the first issue has been the price of advertising. But we will change that starting November 1st. Rates will be approximately 25 per cent higher than at present. We think that advance will be sufficient; some have advocated raising it as much as 500 per cent, but we do not aim to make a profit on this paper, at least, not now.

It might be explained that during the past eight weeks it has cost us an average of very close to $20 per week to print and deliver this paper. The advertising has not paid us that much. Therefore, with the increased cost of linotype, if we continue to put out as many pages per issue and cover as large a territory as formerly, our costs will advance somewhat and it will be necessary to have a greater income to cover said cost.

PERSONALS

DEAR FRIENDS:
Feeling rather incompetent this Tuesday evening the Editor will put down the personal items in very much the same order as they appear in his note book, or on the various sheets of paper as they arrived in the mail.

First, we would have you attend church on Sunday morning. You don't know what you are missing when you stay away from church.
To change the subject rather abruptly, Diagonal road is now open and the envy of all those who live on roads like Arndale, Hile, etc.
N. W. Biggs is building a new garage.
Mr. Bishop expects to fix the fire escape. It seems two of our good church members reported it to the Fire Department, and now we've got to get busy and fix the thing up. While he is fixing the fire escape, its just possible he will also fix the gutters that leak so badly around the edge of the church roof.
Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stein went to Coshocton last Tuesday to celebrate Mrs. Stein's mother's seventy-second birthday.

Mrs. Brust of Oak Road was ill the fore part of the week, but has now improved sufficiently to be up and around.

One thing leads to another. The Sanners have a cow, so Mrs. Sanner has turned farmerette. She attended a sale recently and tried mighty hard to buy a corn planter, but ended up with only baled hay.

Have you seen Johnny Stahl since he got married? Answer, no!
On last Thursday a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Porter, who live at the corner of East Graham and Hile roads.

Mr. Monteith, last Sunday, said that it is customary to send your mother or anyone else if you love her, a flower, and he would have it follow, that if you love your boys and girls send them to Sunday school and church. The Editor would add bring them— the reason, Judge Hunsicker of the Juvenile Court in Akron states that 90 per cent of all cases coming up in his court are juveniles who do not go to Bible school.

Mrs. Katherine Huff, who has been staying with her niece, Mrs. A. F. Stein, Hudson road, returned this last week to Painesville where she will visit for a time with her son, Mr. C. G. Huff.

River Road comes to life. Last Saturday night River Road Club surprised George Kissing, the occasion being his birthday.

The public is invited.

Burglars and callers beware. Approach the Roberts home on Munroe Falls road with care. Bill Roberts is an expert (?) shot with a rifle. To this fact his friend Richard Beckwith can testify. Early on Monday morning of this week, while waiting to go to work with Bill, Richard walked up to Bill's house. Bill is a very sound sleeper and on hearing footsteps on the gravel, supposing he had been aroused in the middle of the night, when really it was 5 A.M. and time for him to get up, he reached for his gun and let it go through the window at the supposedly unwanted caller. He didn't realize what he had done until Richard called, "For Heaven's Sake Bill." Richard probably didn't know how close he came to actually being in heaven.

The River Road Club will meet Thursday, October 22nd, at the home of Mona North.

Dick House, who has been with the CCC camp, has returned home.

Bud McCollgan, of River Road recently traded his Chevy for a truck, with which he intends to haul coal, or what have you.

Little Charles Adams, age 2, who lives on Rose Avenue, was struck last Friday by an automobile on Hudson Road and severely injured. For a time it was thought it would be necessary to amputate one of his legs, but the doctors now think they can save it. He is in the City Hospital and doing as well as can be expected.

Did you know that C. B. Mincks used to go to school with Alfred Landon? About thirty years ago they were both in the same class at Marietta Academy. When Landon was in Akron last Monday it was the first time they had seen each other in that length of time. Mrs. A. H. Cowles, Williamson...
