PROGRESS

Amazing progress is being made by the Community Church in Stow. Developments, exceeding the dreams and hopes of the most faithful, are actually unfolding every week.

It is altogether probable that in the very next issue of this paper announcement will be forthcoming of a program for the Community Church that will exceed anything ever attempted by church activity in Stow, at any time whatsoever.

The minister and official board have at this time a program pending that will enhance the community spirit in Christian activity many fold. Watch this page for announcement next week.

We have never been extravagant in display advertisement. If we knew ourselves at all, conservation has swung the balance, our effort has been to deliver the goods, to let their work speak for itself. Now the hour has struck, the day is at hand. In the spirit of Caleb we say, let us go up at once and possess the land for we are well able to overcome it. Under God this is always true. No group of men can accomplish a great and lasting work in the realm of the Spirit unless God be with them.

The Community Church not only has won the right to live, it now gives evidence of being a mighty power for good, sending its rays of light, of truth, of hope afar in every direction.

This church probably embodies eighteen or twenty different faiths or creeds. Approximately twenty different denominations find a common ground on which to labor for the living Lord.

Never in my three and a half years as minister have I heard one word of contention relative to church doctrine. One is our Master, even Christ and all we are brethren.

This is glorious evidence to the world that a new day, a day long sought and prayed for, is at hand. The Community Church in Stow will contend for a vital spiritual contact with Almighty God, it will advance in faith believing there is a mighty reality in pure, unadulterated Christianity.

If this church, or any church, survives the renaissance through which Christianity is passing it must have the magnanimity to free itself from many pet tenets and hold fast to the simple gospel truths taught by the Master.

A Current Lesson Analysis
For April 18

This lesson is intended primarily to be a temperance lesson. It approaches the subject from the result angle. The text is found in several different books of the Old Testament. The principle topic is the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah and the principle characters are Abraham, Sarah his wife, Lot his nephew and the members of the family of Lot. The purpose of the lesson is to teach the curse of sin. In other words it teaches that those who forget God and revel in the lust of worldly pleasure must face the wrath of God.

God made a covenant with Abraham when he was seventy-five years old that he would give him a land for his descendants and God directed him to take his household and start out. Abraham, whose name was then Abram, took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew and did as the Lord commanded him. He was lead by God to Canaan. Here he and Lot established themselves and developed herds, for they were shepherds. It was not long until dissent developed between the herdsmen of Lot and those of Abraham over the division of the sheep. Abraham, who was always capable of exercising excellent judgment, proposed a division which was accepted by Lot with the understanding that Lot would take his portion of the herd to other pastures and keep them separate. Lot chose the fertile plains of the lower Jordan near the Dead Sea and took his family to live in Sodom which was a city of idolatry and knew not God. Conditions became so terrible there shortly after Lot moved in that God revealed to Abraham his plan to destroy both it and two others of lesser size named Gomorrah and Zoar. Abraham pleaded with the Lord to spare these cities for the sake of the righteous who dwelt there.

Abraham suggested that there were possibly fifty people there who were Christians, and the Lord told him that if there were ten there who were Christians He would not destroy it. The Lord sent angels to Lot who warned him of the plan and they told him to flee the city for his life and to take his household with him. Most of Lot's family refused to leave and Lot finally started with his wife and daughters with instructions not to look back but to make haste. His wife disobeyed and was turned into a pillar of salt. Two of these cities were destroyed by fire and brimstone rained from heaven.

Please realize that this is no fairy-tale. It is referred to many, many times in the Bible and Jesus referred to it twice while He was on earth in the flesh, once in Matt. 10:15: and again in 11:23, 24. It is referred to by Isa., Jer., Ezek., Amos, Zeph., Paul in Rom., Peter in 2 Pet., by Jude, and by John in Rev. (References furnished on request.) As a means of further strengthening your faith we have the fact that the Pontifical Biblical Institute of Jerusalem has excavated the cities and has found deposits of brimstone and sulphur. The account of the battle of Kings in Gen. 14:10 which was fought in the Vale of Siddim also refers to slimepits. The Hebrew word for 'slimepits' means 'bitumen.' The period pottery found conforms to the Biblical account date. Jesus said if they had lived right and trusted in the Lord the city of Sodom might be there yet. Refer to the map of Canaan as given in the back of most Bibles.

The most beautiful thing in the entire account is to be found in the fact that God sent his angels to warn Lot and to deliver him out of the city before the destruction. God controls your destiny and mine.

This past week a certain lady who lives on a certain street in Stow (not Arndale) wonders why the neighbors can't keep their dogs tied up at home in place of "yippity-yapping" up and down in front of her house while members of family are trying to sleep, or take an afternoon nap. Just because they have a dog license is no reason why the animals should be allowed to run across her lawn, flower beds, etc., etc. and she would be much obliged if etc., etc. She thought a little publicity might help. NOW OF COURSE THIS CAN'T BE YOUR DOG.
