SUCCESS

Success, that is it. Nothing more thrilling than success, nothing more mournful than defeat, yet failure covers the earth with its doleful wrecks, its ghost is everywhere.

Twenty young men may start life at the scratch, three or four of them will probably succeed. Fifty years after the start the majority have wearied, failed or quit. From looking forward to success, fame or riches, at seventy three-fourths of them will have died, about two of those left will be rich, the others, with few exceptions, will be dependent on relatives or the public.

The trail of human life is strewn with wrecks, their gruesome hulks cover land and sea. I contend that life should be otherwise, that the small fractions of human endeavor should go down in defeat. Failure is a libel on God Almighty. Success of a human soul glorifies his Maker. Success should crown man's efforts in every honorable line of effort. Success is accomplishment, it is the favorable termination of anything attempted.

Within every normal human being is the seed of success. It's up to the individual to get out of himself the power and possibilities that are within. Success is guaranteed to every soul that is true to itself, its Maker, and perseveres in the way of its own bent or calling.

There is no royal road to success. Success is won by hard work, by integrity, by the driving power of enthusiasm for one's task.

Be thorough, be in dead earnest and stick to it and a high and holy law will write success and not failure across your pathway.

My church, let your watch-word be Success and know this, my people, a successful church is only possible through consecration and unflinching effort. It takes work, hard work and a steady united pull by church members who are redeemed, who know their God, members cooperating who have a passion for the truth, members to whom the glorious thought of life everlasting is a mighty reality, this, all this, is the toll of a successful church.

May providence spare the church from the shame, the humility of failure. My people, the church must live, must triumph, must succeed. Never in human history has the need of the church been more in evidence.

Come, then, my people, rally to the church, stop or stoop to nothing save the cross of Christ and the advancement of His kingdom. The time is at hand, shake off the tyrant of indifference, break with the frolicking crowd, say unto yourself, my church needs me, it is God's call and success or failure depends on me.

CHURCH SERVICES
VACATION — C. E. PLAY
POSTPONED

Rev. Hulme announces that next Sunday morning after Bible School there will be church services. No evening service on that date however. And during July he expects to take a vacation. Announcement regarding morning or evening church or Tabernacle services during that month will probably be made in this paper next week. As the plans now stand there will be special evening song services and on at least one Sunday evening the young people hope to give their missionary play, which incidentally was to have been presented this Sunday evening but has been postponed.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Hulme will preach on the subject “The Holy Spirit.”

1738 Wesley while listening to the reading of Luthers "Preface to the Epistle to the Romans"

nine while he was describing the change which God works in the heart through faith in Christ, I felt my heart strangely warmed.
I felt I did trust in Christ, Christ alone for salvation, and an assurance was given me that he had taken away my sin, even mine and saved me from the law of sin and death."
