SAVE A LIFE—SAVE A SOUL

For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink:—Naked and ye clothed me. Matthew 25:35-36.

On the front page of this paper last week the bitter need of starving children of Europe and Asia was set forth for your consideration. What your money would provide for them in the way of food or vitamins was briefly outlined.

Did you read what it said? And if you did read, we would ask you now,—what did you do about it? For,—upon the answer may hang YOUR eternal destiny, as well as their fate. Turn to your Bible NOW and read verses thirty one to forty-six in the twenty-fifth chapter of Matthew. The application should be obvious.

This is the season of the year when our thoughts turn to giving. Too often it is a case of I give you this and you give me that. An exchange of materials as it were. But there can be a different sort of an exchange very much more-worth-while. Try giving to someone who will never be able to repay you in person. Then it is as a gift unto the Lord. After reading the twenty-fifth chapter of Matthew need we say any more as to YOUR reward.

Merchants now tell you there are only so many shopping days before Christmas. For many in our land of Stow Christmas will mean a day of joy and happiness, but to many others—children in Europe especially, it will be the day when certain starved little bodies give up the fight against hunger, sickness and disease. Just the same number of days for them until Christmas as for you. In the Name of the Lord help them if you can. And there are very few in this land, the United States of America, who cannot do something to help. For our church—Stow Community Church, if you please, it would make a good start toward a foreign missionary program.

That you may be informed what has been done the following interesting facts are presented:

Church World Service, combining the thinking of many denominational leaders decided in June 1946 to ask for $7,815,996 in cash before December 31st to carry out a world wide ministry for those in need. Also contributed commodities were requested with a value of $7,180,000.

At the half way point, church organizations and others contributed nearly $4,000,000 cash and $1,769,252 in commodities. Hence to complete this year's program before December 31st there is needed $3,800,000 cash and $5,470,000 in goods.

Figures like these seem rather large. An individual is inclined to think that his or her help will not make much difference. But a dollar or ten dollars more, given in the Name of the Lord and added to the fund may save one more life for time and eternity. While it will not be humanly possible to know just which life your contribution saved, God will know, and the record will be kept in Heaven.

Turning our thoughts now to NEED at home: Two letters were received this past week from the Southland.

The first from the Wedels. Two fine young folks with better than average in Higher Christian education, and obviously filled with an unusual passion for service in the Lord's Needy Vineyard, have been working among the colored children for the past four or five years. Thousands have been visited by them. Large numbers have been brought to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus thru their ministry.

The second letter is from the Valiquettes who have recently become associated with the Wedels. Meeting them last August when they were home on a vacation (Mrs. Valiquette's parents, the Hankeys, live in Munroe Falls) our testimony is that they are two of the finest, thoroughly good, and apparently consecrated Christians it has been our privilege to meet. Since they spoke to different Christian service organizations in and around our community, many know much about the details of their work. Their letters follow. May the Lord lay the burden of their heart upon your heart.

LETTER

In The Heart of The South
With The South On Our Hearts
PIONEER GOSPEL MISSION
1738 Devine Street
Jackson, Mississippi
Rev. and Mrs. Erwin R. Wedel
November 9, 1946

Dear Friends in Ohio:
We just want to drop in and sing the Doxology with you this Thanksgiving. My, but God has been good to us in this work! Race hatreds have flared; lynchings increased. But God has opened the doors wider than ever. More opportunities to reach more thousands with the glorious Gospel.

A New “Dress?”

Are you wondering about our new letterhead? We felt led, since the work is growing so marvelous-ly, new workers being added, to incorporate. Now your gifts are exempt from income tax. We puzzled long over a name. Finally we selected “PIONEER GOSPEL MISSION”. It seems to describe this work: “Pioneer”; This is truly trail blazing work. Plowing new ground. “Gospel”; What else have we to offer a lost and dying world? “Mission”; These colored people are indeed “Sheep without a shepherd.”

New “Shoes!”

Since the invention of the printing press, the Gospel in print has gone to millions who would otherwise never have heard. The Lord has in answer to much prayer, given us the vision and the Press for such a ministry. A Gospel Paper, “The Young Pioneer” for the Negro school children of Mississippi. An initial issue of 20,000 will soon go forward. This is a costly venture. Paper and mailing are high. Pray for these “New Shoes to Go for God.”

New “Places to Go.”

The principal had promised 45 minutes. By the time the 750 negro children had marched in it was 20 till 12. He gave about 10 words of introduction. It was a cool reception for the “white man.” We are used to such receptions the first time we are in any Negro service. I wish you could have seen the transformation at the end of 20 minutes. Unbounded enthusiasm, cordial invitations to “come back, just anytime. Make it soon, won’t you?” We have seen such changes take place scores of times. When they see that we really love them and are bringing them something worth while, how eager and appreciative they are. And yet they are so neglected. 10,000,000 of them!

New Prayer Warriors Needed

What marvelous opportunities lie just ahead. What pressing obligations upon us as Christians! Thank you again, and again, for your faithfulness in prayer, and your sacrificial offerings. This Mission work has no other support than that of the Lord’s faithful ones here and there. The Lord’s Reward for precious souls won through your efforts awaits you. We can only say “Thank you from the bottom of our hearts, and God bless you.”

Very sincerely yours, in The King’s Service,
Irwin and Ruth Mary

CHILD EVANGELISTS
To MISSISSIPPI NEGRO BOYS AND GIRLS
Mr. and Mrs. A. Valiquette
Brandon, Mississippi

Thanksgiving
Dear Christian Friends:
Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

We thank God for our Salvation, for the privilege of telling the gospel to these Negro boys and girls, for Christian friends like you, who serve with us in Mississippi through your prayers and gifts, for health and home and blessings too numerous to name.

We praise and thank God for a room we have been able to rent as an office. It relieves the overflow in our trailer.

Praise our Lord for many open doors in schools and in churches. Girls and boys are finding Jesus as their personal Savior. Thanks be to God.

We located a school where we had to drive for over a mile through the fields. The narrow tracks turned off in all directions and we followed the sound of the children’s voices as they were out playing during lunch hour.

The teacher said she did not know there was a road to the school. She rides a bus from Jackson and walks in from the other direction across the fields. There are many like this school.

Pray for guidance for us to find the other thirty-odd schools in Rankin County we have not reached yet.

Please pray with us for much needed office equipment. A type-writer is needed (this one is borrowed) and other pieces to work efficiently.

Praise God. He can supply all our needs if we bring them before Him. Pray with us for our Spiritual and material needs.

Would you like to share some of your blessings with the Negro children for Christmas? Perhaps candy bars or just send your gift now that they may have an apple and orange. It is all many will receive in the rural districts.

Let us rejoice together, that every day is thanksgiving day when we know Jesus as our Saviour. May He richly bless you.

Write us a note if you have a moment. It means much.

Sincerely in His Service.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Valiquette.

TEACHING SCHOOL

No doubt you read the papers and know by now what the teachers are doing about their salaries in Akron, Minneapolis and other points here and there. Maybe you are aroused about the matter. Maybe you are just simply fed up on such controversies between schoolteachers and boards of education. If that's the way it is, turn back now and see what the visiting minister said in his sermon or look for a letter from some Stow boy who is still waiting to come home. You see I haven't said my piece about the matter. I've been teaching quite a while. I've seen teachers thick as flies and again scarce as storage batteries as of this date. They come and go with the times. Come bad times and the teachers camp on the doorsteps of board members far into the night and political pressure is brought to bear to oust the regular teachers to make place for lawyers, engineers, chemists and such like who can not find a place to ply their usual trades and suddenly discover the nice things about teaching the young of the community. Come good times and the poor beset board members park on the doorsteps of potential teachers and beg them to slave the country by entering the classrooms and guiding youthful America. I suppose there are some normal years when the boards and teachers meet on something like even terms, but to save my life I can't seem to remember any.

Now times are good and a lot of people who thought they wanted to teach school have found that it isn't to their liking after all. In fact the public seems to have sort of forgotten the teachers when they were raising wages and prices. So the teaching profession goes a begging for new talent to fill the gaps which time and higher wages in other fields have left in our ranks. I used to think that a teacher was really somebody. He seemed a person of some consequence in the scheme of things, and I wanted to fill his honorable shoes. Now I wonder. My faith in our importance doesn't seem to be shared by most of the people if we are to judge by the salaries.
that are being paid. I'm afraid that we've scrimped and saved so much that we've sort of gotten over it. Our lives have been so narrowed that we have lost a bit of our contact with the world. Many of us are hesitant about associating with people of other professions. Sometimes we don't have the sand to appear as often in the same clothes as we would have to do if we went out very often. Vacation trips and concerts and a new car have had to wait on increases in salary that were "too little and too late." Now they say that we are going to get real raises. They ought not to wait much longer if they are to bring a few smiles to those trusty aging servants that held the line during the recent trying years. Already it is too late to reward many. Do your part to make those left smiling happy creatures once again so that they may bring the light of contented lives into the classrooms that your children visit day by day.

CHURCH BUSINESS MEETING

The regular monthly and yearly business meeting of Stow Community Church will be held Friday evening December 6th, 7:30 p.m. at the church. Election of Bible School and Church officers for the year 1947 will take place. All members should attend.

Furthermore, Rev. Andrews, state secretary of the Ohio Federated Community Church Council, will be present. He will also be here on Sunday December 8th when he may have with him a supply and candidate for the pulpit of our church.

SUPPER

Preliminary to the business meeting at the church Friday night, Dec. 6, it is planned to hold a church supper at which time an opportunity will be given to meet any visiting pastors and their families. This will presumably be held at 6 or 6:30 p.m.
SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT BUCKEYE LAKE

May I add a few words to the reports given to the Sunday School concerning the Laymen's Conference at Buckeye Lake?

To have heard the talk that Rev. Burkhardt made would have been an inspiration to every person in Stow Community Church. He is so sincere in his beliefs and in his profession of those beliefs that a person instinctively has confidence in him and in the ultimate goal of the plan set forth for the Community Churches.

He began by telling the stories of Moses and Ruth in the Old Testament days. He stressed the fact that if these events hadn't taken place as they did that the history of the world would have been drastically changed and our Christian religion would never have happened. He was trying to make us cognizant of God's plan for mankind—that there is a definite place in that plan for each and everyone of us.

Reviewing the history of the Christian church, he led us to see that the first churches were not buildings but the individual people who made up the group of believers in Christ. We know that they sometimes had no buildings in which to hold their meetings. But we do know that belief in the crucified, risen Savior admitted them into fellowship each with the other. Differences in doctrine were not a part of the early churches.

Rev. Burkhardt attempted to make us realize throughout his talk that ideally the Community Church can become as the earthly churches if people will lay aside their differences and learn to cooperate for the welfare of all.

Visualizing the Community Church as a working force for the living God in the community, we as laymen must each find our work and carry it through. The Community Church must become a seven day-a-week church—not just a place of worship for an hour on the Sabbath. We must learn to really live our religion seven days a week and not be ashamed of our belief in our risen Savior.

Perhaps Rev. Burkhardt holds a Utopian viewpoint when he sees a church for every school district in our country (more than one if the district is large). He sees a church working for the betterment of community and individuals—cooperating, helping—so that every individual will learn to live the Co-operation of the individuals in one church, working for the good of all, co-operation with other churches will aid in bringing this to pass. We as laymen or individuals, by whatever name we call ourselves are a part of God's Infinite plan. Let us each do our share.

A sermonette will be presented by the pastor Rev. J. H. Runyan.
There is great enthusiasm in the hearts of each member of the church concerning the new property, on the corner of Onedia St. and Graham Road which has been purchased for the site of the new Foursquare Church. This is being accomplished by donations and pledges received from members and friends. We appreciate the fine cooperation shown from each and everyone.

Plans will soon be drawn up and the erection of the new church will be started in the Spring.
The Y. P. Married Class held their monthly class meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wigal. A time of fellowship was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mildred Wigal.

Mrs. J. D. Hamilton entertained the S. S. class of Jr. Girls in her home last Friday evening. Class officers were appointed. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served by Mrs. Hamilton.

News, issue No. 49, dated Dec. 3rd, 1937 re- cords the fact of the marriage of Miss June Viall and Mr. Clyde Gerber “last Saturday night”. It further states that the marriage took place before an “appreciative audience” at Community Church, that they “escaped through a shower of rice” and after a recep- tion at their new home, the groom landed in jail at Cuyahoga Falls. Later friends secured his release and the bride and groom were then able to proceed on their honey- moon trip to Niagara Falls and other points east.

Clate Ritchie who called on us one evening last week to pay his subscription to this paper, and who is employed by the county highway department, told of working for the past several days (or weeks') to raise a bridge which spans the Ohio Canal near the Sun Rubber Co. in Barberton. It seems that the Rubber Co. takes large quantities of water from the canal which the State is obliged to keep open. Accordingly, whenever the State wants to send in a dredge to do the cleaning job the County Highway Department has to jack up the bridge in order to let the dredge pass through. One bridge recently lifted, Mr. Ritchie said, required six fifty-five ton jacks, three men working on each jack.

In fact he did not even take a shot at anything. Game in that vicinity is scarce this year. However son Jim got two birds and two rabbits and Mr. Froelich two birds and three rabbits. And regardless of the scarcity of game a grand time was had by all just tramping over the fields in the perfect weather.

The Hobsons rented from Mrs. Marvin Atkins in her new home by the creek ten years ago. Mrs. Hobson had been joined by her mother, Mrs. Frank L. Johnson of Kent following the accident. Besides living in Fish Creek, Ohio Mr. Hobson was born in another town by the same name in West Virginia. He is survived by his wife, small daughter, father, brother and sister.

gram after school on Thursday of last week. Featured were the “do’s” and “don’ts” of proper man-ers, dress and make-up. Models were all members of the Y-Teen.

For the first time in the history of Stow high school a king and queen have been chosen to represent their band. “Mickey” Eleanor McClaren is the queen. Dick Michl is the king. They attended the Military Ball held at the central High School in Akron, Noember 23rd.

The debating team of Stow high school, in its first tournament held at Kent State university, won two places. Those winning were Don Batton and Claude Hubbard against Windham and Mary Zimmerman and Edgar Dallv.

Those who lost were Bob Glees-
son and Bill Kemmel to Youngstown; Richard Turner and Joyce Burnham to Wooster; R. Caroc-ciola and Dale Pietz to Canton Lehman. Wi lma Hanson and Norma Bauer lost to Wooster.

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

With our cash self-serve method and up to date store we hope to serve our many customers better.

Our store is crowded with quality merchandise. It also includes a nice selection of not only groceries, meats and holiday trimmings, but useful gifts as well.

We will be pleased to have you stop and see for yourself, at least it will be less crowded than the big stores and easier to shop. We can help you in your shopping problems.

Stop anytime. Open from 8 to 8.
(Closed Sunday)
